

MRS. H. E. HUNTINGTON DIVORCED

While giving her testimony on the witness stand today, Miss Dorothy Olsen declared that the father of Lester C. McNulty had threatened her with blackmail if she kept the money given to her by Dr. McNulty, Lester's brother, and continued in her prosecution of his son. Witness also told of the gift of gold.

CARMEN IN THOUSANDS ABANDON FAVOR OF STRIKE HOMES BECAUSE OF EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS

No Action, However, Is Taken at Meeting of the Union.

Last night at a meeting of the Oakland Carmen's Union held in their hall in Giers Building they remained in session until about 10 30 o'clock. When seen at the close of the meeting several of the members stated that no action was taken in regard to the calling or the declaring of a strike in the event of not being granted the request for an increase of wages which was made a little more than a week ago to the company.

They declared that no definite action could be taken on the matter without a three fourths vote of all the members of the union, and furthermore that the proposed strike would have to receive the endorsement of the International Carmen's Association in order to receive the support of the main body for the purpose of making the strike as effective as possible.

NOT YET OFFICIAL.

With respect to the reply to the communication of Manager Kelly of the Oakland Traction Consolidated which sets forth that that company would make no concessions to the demands of the union with respect to wages and other conditions the members stated that the communication had not been officially brought to their attention.

It had not come to them as members of the union but simply as attaches of the traction company through

THREATEN A STRIKE

ST PETERSBURG, March 22.—The agitation among the workmen's organizations involves a bold plan on the part of the Social Democrats revolutionists and other radical elements to send delegates elected secretly to a meeting to be called at some place in Finland early in April at which an ultimate plan of operations will be decided upon.

A division of sentiment exists among the leaders. Some of them favor calling a general strike in the middle of April for the purpose of forcing the lower House of Parliament to demand the immediate convocation of a constituent assembly on the basis of universal suffrage but the more audacious aim at setting up a provisional government. They believe the time is ripe to organize a general uprising, and that, if successful, their representatives could successfully contest the authority of the government.

Inhabitants on Island of Ustica
Are Thrown Into a Panic.

NEW YORK, March 22.—A cable dispatch to the Herald from Palermo says: There have been twenty-one earthquake shocks on the island of Ustica during the last three days. The population lives in constant terror. A great valley has been formed in the center of the island and all the houses have been demolished. The shocks were vertical, not undulatory, and were accompanied by loud subterranean rumblings.

THOUSANDS ABANDON THEIR HOMES.

The last shocks, which occurred yesterday, finished the work of destruction. Panic seized upon the two thousand inhabitants of the island, who abandoned their homes after the first visitation of the earthquakes and camped in the fields and public squares. Many took refuge in boats in the harbor.

The island is used as a penal settlement for hardened criminals, of whom there are 600 quartered there. These were also panic-stricken and attempted to escape, attacking their guards, but were subdued.

SUBDUE PRISONERS; AID SUFFERERS.

One of the three mountains on the island is reported by the submarine cable to be in eruption. The government at the first news sent the cruiser Varese to subdue the revolt of the prisoners and aid the sufferers. She was followed by the cruiser Eurydice, with a scientific commission on board to study the seismic phenomena.

Yesterday the steamship Egadi was sent with soldiers, doctors, and detachments of the Red Cross nurses and litters, as greater disasters are feared. The prefect of Palermo has been ordered to send a representative to the scene.

Ustica Island is of two thousand inhabitants in the province of Palermo, sixty-eight miles north-northwest of this city. Its soil is very fertile.

EPIDEMIC OF SMALLPOX

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 22.—Fifty-seven cases of smallpox are reported in the farming districts of Liman and Bridge, in Uintah county, Wyo., and the southern part of the county has been quarantined. The source of the epidemic, it is reported, was an abandoned pest house in the mining camp at Cumberland, which a ranchman appropriated using some of the partitions in his own dwelling and selling timbers to neighbors.

STRIKERS USE VIOLENCE

LENS, France, March 22.—Reports from various mining centers show that the strike is now general. Some disorder has occurred and a number of the companies' wagons have been smashed. Twelve hundred additional troops have arrived here and the whole district is now occupied by the military forces.

Robinson was brought here from the Pacific Coast by a local distilling company a year ago, but recently lost his position. He leaves a family in the West.

Miss Dorothy Olsen Tells Why Money Was Given Her.

"Mr. McNulty told me that he would not take back the money, and if I kept it and prosecuted the case against his son, that he would blackmail me," were the words of Dorothy Olsen this morning in testifying in answer to questions put to her by Attorney A. L. Frick.

This answer and the questions leading up to it were following a statement made last evening by Miss Olsen, who, in being interrogated about the money she had taken from the McNultys, said:

"The first time that Dr. McNulty and J. A. McNulty, the father, came to see me at the Marshalls was on Saturday, November 11. I did not tell them that I thought it ought to be worth something to keep Lester McNulty's name out of the newspapers. Dr. McNulty asked me if I wanted money and I said no. Then he begged me to be merciful. I felt sorry for him and his father and finally said I would not make any trouble for Lester McNulty. Then old Mr. McNulty tried to give me a lot of $20 gold pieces. I said I would not take them. Then Mrs. Marshall said I must take the money. I did what she told me to do. I was sorry I had taken it, but I didn't know what to do. There was $200.

WHY SHE TOOK MONEY.

"The Marshalls kept after me, so that I didn't know what to do next. I let them induce me to do nothing further against McNulty and let them persuade me to say I was not quite sure that Lester McNulty was the man who had attacked me when he and a lot of men belonging to lodges came to the Marshalls on November 15. Everybody was trying to work on my feelings, and that is why I took the $300 that Dr. McNulty brought me on the afternoon of the 16th, and why I then signed the paper he wanted me to sign. The first thing I did after I had had

MRS. MARY A. HUNTINGTON.

H. E. HUNTINGTON.

In the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California.
Mary A. Huntington, plaintiff, vs. Henry E. Huntington, defendant. Interlocutory decree of divorce.

The above-entitled cause coming on this day regularly for trial upon the complaint and answer hereto, in Messrs. Van Fleet and Mastick appearing for the plaintiff, and Messrs. W. E. Dunn and Peter F. Dunne appearing for the defendant, and evidence being introduced and proofs made, and the cause having been submitted to the court for its decision, and written findings having been waived by the parties; and the court now being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the allegations of the complaint herein are true and sustained by the evidence; now, therefore, the court renders this, its interlocutory decree, and adjudges and decrees that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of the defendant's wilful desertion of the plaintiff. And it further appearing to the court that all the property owned and possessed by the parties hereto is the separate property of the plaintiff and defendant respectively, and that said parties own no community property, no provision or disposition is made by this decree concerning community property. This decree is interlocutory, and at the expiration of one year from entry hereof, the said plaintiff will be entitled to and there shall be entered by the court on the motion of either party, or upon its own motion, a final judgment granting the said divorce and restoring the parties hereto to the status of unmarried persons, and the court shall grant such further relief as may be necessary to a complete disposition of this action.
Done in open court this 22d day of March, 1906.
THOMAS F. GRAHAM, Judge.

CASE ENDS IN JUST FOUR MINUTES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Superior Judge Graham this morning granted Mrs. Mary A. Huntington, wife of Henry Edwards Huntington, the multi-millionaire traction magnate, and favorite nephew of the late Collis P. Huntington, an interlocutory decree of divorce on the statutory ground of desertion.

The proceedings in court were not attended by any unusual incidents. In fact, the hearing of the case was very much shorter than is usual in divorce matters—the time occupied not being more than four minutes. Yet, during that brief space sufficient uncontradicted testimony of the desertion was introduced to give Mrs. Huntington the right to a decree severing the matrimonial bonds which were almost of thirty-three years' duration.

IS QUICKLY TRIED.

The brevity of the proceedings, the common, every-day manner in which the questions were put and answered, the regular, mathematical operation of the machinery of the law seemed out of keeping with the fact that two of the wealthiest and most talked-of persons on the Pacific Coast, and representatives of the name of Huntington, which has world-wide fame, and stands for railroad, were about to be legally separated after a third of a

FEW ARE PRESENT.

Despite the fact that the morning papers had given wide publicity to the prospective divorce, stating the time and place where it would be held, there were no society people present, to either satisfy their curiosity or offer their moral support to the plaintiff.

The time set for the hearing was 9 30 o'clock. There were a dozen newspaper men present, several photographers, and the regular court officials.

MRS. HUNTINGTON.

A few minutes before the case was called Mrs. Huntington, attired in a gray traveling suit, entered the courtroom, leaning on the arm of her brother, Edward H. Prentice. There were no other persons in the party. Mrs. Huntington and her brother took seats in the rear of the courtroom, and without any show of embarrassment or confusion calmly awaited the coming of the judge.

Her attorney, Judge W. C. Van Fleet, had proceeded her in the courtroom, and had conferred with Attorneys W. E. Dunn of Los Angeles and Peter F. Dunne of San Francisco, representing the absent husband. In their preliminary conference the attorneys for both sides agreed that there would be no cross-examination.

CASE IS CALLED.

After this had been determined Judge Van Fleet joined his client in the rear of the courtroom and conversed with her until the voice of the bailiff announced that court was open for business.

"Any ex-parte motions?" asked the court as it usual before proceeding with the calendar.

There were none.
"Huntington against Huntington," read Judge Graham from his docket.
"May it please the court," said Judge Van Fleet, "this is an action for a divorce on the statutory ground of desertion. To the complaint on file an answer has been filed making a general denial of the allegations of the complaint. We are now ready to put on testimony."

"Proceed," said Judge Graham.
"Mrs. Huntington will you please take the witnessstand?" asked her attorney.

WCMAN ON STAND.

She arose from her place in the rear of the room, and advanced toward the witness stand. She bore herself in a dignified manner, holding her head aristocratically poised. Her journey to the witness stand and her dignity would have been unimpaired had it not been for a naughty little step, about four inches high, between the witness stand and the regular steps. She failed to see the inconsequential step, and as a result tripped.

BECOMES ANNOYED.

Her face plainly showed that she was annoyed by having stumbled, but she preserved her dignity by a quick recovery, and seated herself on the witness stand thoroughly composed. Her entire conduct on the stand was that of a matron, well versed in the affairs of life, used to publicity and not afraid to meet any issue squarely. She never forgot for a moment that her training as a society woman should induce her to maintain a perfect calm.

She answered the questions put to her in a clear unemotional voice, looking a trifle bored, and seemed just a little bit relieved when she was allowed to leave the witness stand and take a seat beside her attorney.

ANSWERS QUESTIONS.

The first question asked by Judge Van Fleet was as to her name.

"Mary A. Huntington," replied the witness.

"You are the wife, are you not, of the defendant in this suit?" asked her attorney.

"I am," responded Mrs. Huntington.

"When were you married?" was the next question.

"We were married on November 17, 1873."

"Were there any children resulting from the marriage?"

"Yes, there were four."

"Will you kindly name them?"

"Charles Edward Huntington, Mrs. Clara Huntington Perkins, Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Metcalf and Miss Marion Huntington."

"Where is the place of your residence?" next asked her attorney.

"I reside in San Francisco, on Jackson street, she replied."

"How long have you resided there?"

"For more than ten years."

"At the present time are you living there with your husband?"

"No, sir."

The answer was given sharply and with considerable emphasis.

"Where is your husband at the present time, if you know?"

"He is in Los Angeles."

"How long has he been there?"

"He has resided there almost entirely for the last six years."

"During that time has he ever made his home with you in this city?"

"No, sir, he has not."

"During the period you and your husband have been separated, have you ever sustained any marital relations with him?"

"No, sir."

"You have always been a good and true wife to him, have you not?"

"Yes, sir."

GAVE NO CAUSE.

"Have you ever given him any cause to leave you?"

"I do not think that I ever did."

"Has he refused since leaving you to resume marital relations with you?"

"He has."

"I think that is all, your honor," said Judge Van Fleet. "Are there any questions?" asked Judge Graham, addressing Attorneys W. E. Dunn, and Peter F. Dunne, representing the husband.

"We have no questions," replied Peter Dunne.

"I will then call Mr. Prentice," said Judge Van Fleet. Mr. Prentice then took the stand.

"What is your name?" he was asked.

"Edward Huntington Prentice,"

BECOMES RATTLED.

"What relation do you bear to the complaining witness?" asked Judge Van Fleet.

"A sister," replied Mr. Prentice. "No, I mean a brother," he quickly corrected.

"Where do you reside?"

"I make my home in San Francisco."

"How long have you been here?"

"Practically all my life."

"Have you been on terms of intimate acquaintance with the family of your sister?"

"I have been very closely connected with her."

"Do you know at the present time where the defendant, her husband, is residing?"

"I do."

"Where is the defendant at the present time?" inquired Judge Van Fleet.

"He is in Los Angeles," responded the witness.

"How long has he been there to your own knowledge?"

"He has resided there almost continuously for the last six years."

NO QUESTIONS.

"Do you wish to ask any questions?" asked Judge Graham, interrupting the examination of the witness, and addressing the attorneys for the husband.

"We have no questions," replied the attorneys for the defendants.

"May it please the court," said Judge Van Fleet, "there is one question more that I would like to ask the plaintiff. I will ask you, Mrs. Huntington, if there is any community property."

"No, there is none," she replied.

This ended the testimony.

DECREE SIGNED.

Judge Graham signed the interlocutory decree of divorce and handed it to Judge Van Fleet. The next case on the calendar was then called.

Mrs. Huntington, her brother and her attorney, then left the court room and proceeded to the county clerk's office where the interlocutory decree was filed.

The decree separating the defendant and the plaintiff will begin to run from 10 o'clock in the morning. In exactly one year the decree will become final.

The interlocutory decree provides that either Mr. Huntington, or his wife or the court of its own motion, can have the decree made final.

CAMERA MEN BUSY.

This leaves the case in a condition where even if Mrs. Huntington repented the divorce that her husband could by his own motion secure the final decree although she would drop all of the proceedings.

While the party was proceeding down the corridors, they were kept busy dodging snap-shot artists.

Mrs. Huntington, however, did not pay much attention to the photographers camping on her trail. After the document was filed the party entered a carriage and were driven away.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Mrs. Henry E. Huntington, sister of a prince and wife of the richest, or second richest, man on the Pacific Coast, yesterday filed suit in this city for an absolute divorce.

She gave as the cause of her desertion the fact that she was separated from the nephew of Collis P. Huntington, from the man of so many millions.

The filing of this suit will come as a shock to San Francisco, where the Huntingtons have so long figured conspicuously in society. It was only the other day that a wedding was celebrated in the family, and at that ceremony society put on its brightest gowns.

But in Los Angeles those at all intimate with Huntington affairs do not seem at all surprised at the suit, as they have had an idea for some time that Mr. Huntington was in order to be on with the old love in order to be on with a new one. In the southern city gossip is free that when the year of the statute has elapsed there will be a new Mrs. Huntington.

ALL ARRANGED.

Apparently the suit had all been arranged in advance, as such things are arranged among people of millions.

Mrs. Huntington did not ask for any alimony or for any partition of the $40,000,000 her husband is supposed to own.

When people are content not to ask a share or division of such a plump estate, all of which had had hours of it is very evident that property affairs have been arranged in advance.

REFUSES TO TALK.

As for Mrs. Huntington, she put in her time yesterday afternoon in a busy round of shopping preparatory to the Oriental tour which she started today. She would not make any statement for publication as to her reasons, or those of her husband, for arranging the divorce.

It was from some of her friends and from the Los Angeles gossip that the tale of a new love that had hours of it came to the attention of the public.

In the heart of Henry E. Huntington after thirty-three years of married life and the rearing of a family of three daughters and one son, all of whom have reached their majority.

HOME ABLAZE WITH LIGHTS.

Last night the Huntington mansion at the northeast corner of Jackson and Broadway streets was ablaze from cellar to roof. The lights were turned on as if for a festival.

There was no sign of a fire. But Mrs. Huntington, thought that home to friends, refused to see representatives of the press to give them her story as to why, at this late day in her married life, she was seeking a divorce.

At the Huntington mansion in Los Angeles he was reported as saying nothing. In this city, "Billy" Dunne, his lawyer, kept his own counsel with careful mouth.

But there is to be no contest of the suit.

NOT A SECRET.

Ex-Supreme Court Justice J. C. Van Fleet and George Musick, his law partner, represent Mrs. Huntington in the litigation, though the story goes that Peter F. Dunne, the Southern Pacific lawyer, has been in the background of the action.

Some effort was made to keep the filing of the divorce papers a secret. At noon yesterday it was told at the City Hall that the suit was to be filed and that an effort had been made to get County Clerk Mulvey to keep the papers from prying eyes.

The story went that the papers had been asked to seal the papers, but had declined on the ground that rich and poor were alike in this court.

DESERED IN 1900.

In any event the lawyers do not secure the coveted favor of exceptional secrecy so at 4:45 they filed the complaint. It is anything but a sensational or explicit document, and alleges desertion in the year 1900.

The filing of the complaint is intermarriage in the State of New Jersey on the 17th day of November, 1873, and ever since have been and are now husband and wife.

ABANDONED HER.

"That in the year 1900, at the city and county of San Francisco, the defendant, Mrs. Huntington, deserted and abandoned the plaintiff, without her fault and against her consent, with the intent then and there to desert and leave her."

That the plaintiff resided and has for more than one year before the commencement of this action resided in said city and county of San Francisco and the said State of California.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment that the said marriage be dissolved and that she be granted a divorce from said defendant and that she have such other and further relief as to equity may appear.

LIVED LONG IN HAPPINESS.

Mrs. Huntington is the sister of the Princess Hatfield and like the Princess, she was at an early age married. It was the match-making of the old railroad builder that brought her to California.

Henry E. Huntington being his then poor but favorite nephew, and she a niece of his, the match was made.

The two lived in evident happiness for many years. In fact, not until after the death of Collis P. Huntington that there seemed to be any trouble in the family.

When the Princess Huntington was left an enormous share of his fortune, making him one of the richest men in America.

home since 1883, the year they moved here from Cincinnati, out on Jackson street in a fine home which H. E. Huntington bought for $30,000 shortly after his arrival in San Francisco. He went south to live H. E. Huntington has seldom visited this home.

A married sister, a Mrs. E. H. Huntington, and the aged mother of H. E. Huntington also live in this city. His brother, W. V. Huntington, also resides here. The latter's daughter is the wife of John D. Spreckels Jr.

DIVORCEE'S MOTHER.

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—Mrs. Clara W. Prentice, who resides at 1401 L street, this city, is the mother of Mrs. Henry E. Huntington. She is a charming matron who in the early days of C. P. Huntington, Mark Hopkins, Charles Crocker and Senator Stanford prime movers in the affairs of the Southern Pacific forty years ago, was one of the most prominent figures in the gay social life of the State capital.

Mrs. Prentice was doubly allied with the Huntingtons. Her sister was the first wife of Collis P. Huntington and her daughter Mary is Mrs. Henry E. Huntington.

The woman now suing for a divorce.

"Well, I don't know," it is probably for the best," said Mrs. Prentice, with an effort, when informed of the proceedings. "But the children will remain loyal to their mother. If I had a husband like Mr. Huntington I should make him too the mark."

The differences between Mr. and Mrs. Huntington date back to the time when the estate of C. P. Huntington was being settled. My daughter, the Princess Hatfield, came on to California and she and her mother received her from the estate. Henry Huntington came to me with his lawyer and told me not to sign any papers. I told him I stood ready to tell the truth at all times and that I should do what was right. He had no further use for me after that and we have been estranged since. If Henry Huntington is doing any one he can be very mean. His uncle, Collis P. Huntington, was like him in this respect, only he was not as bad."

FOR GRANDSON.

Mrs. Prentice spoke affectionately of her grandson, Howard E. Huntington, and his wife, Mrs. E. Huntington.

"The divorce proceedings are somewhat of a surprise, although not entirely unexpected," she said. "I know that there were differences over money matters in the Collis P. Huntington estate, but I thought perhaps they would be settled and we have been estranged from my daughter today saying that she was ready to sail for Japan tomorrow and that her mother had said she said nothing about this separation."

SECOND WEALTHIEST.

Henry E. Huntington is rated by bankers as being the second wealthiest man in California, with a fortune of $40,000,000. The bankers put Claus Spreckels as the richest man in the State.

Prior to the death of Collis P. Huntington, H. E. Huntington was known to be worth $2,000,000. His uncle, Collis P. Huntington, his first start back in Ohio as a lumber dealer. He pleased his uncle in that business field, and the latter finally had him sell out the lumber business and placed him in charge of his Kentucky railroads. He made a distinct success in that new field, and from that time he has been the favorite nephew of his multi-millionaire relative.

All of this time H. E. Huntington lived in Cincinnati. In 1883 he came to California to live with his uncle. He was the representative of his uncle in Southern Pacific affairs.

His uncle gave power to attend to his uncle's interests in the Pacific Improvement Company, Market Street Railway, Pacific Mail and other corporations.

So well did the nephew please the uncle in his business career in California that he was unstinted in his praise of him, and proudly thought that the younger man would come to the name of Huntington in the Southern Pacific after his own death.

JAPANESE DEMANDS A TRIAL BY JURY

"Kinsuke Ohtsuto, alias Kinsuke Otsuchi," read Clerk Hennessey, after having practiced the Japanese language for half an hour in the clerk's room before court was called. The Japanese words fell clearly upon the silence of the court room and not even a titter greeted the purely spoken terms.

Ohtsuto is charged with practicing dentistry without a license. He is under $150 bail. A jury trial was asked for and the date set for March 29 at 10 o'clock. The Japanese is represented by Assistant City Attorney O'Brien and Judge Stetson.

MUST PAY LICENSES.

The license department of the city is going to demand of all those who should pay a license for the conducting of their business, and who have either refused, neglected or forgotten to turn over their just dues to the city coffers.

License inspectors for J. Connolly has his eye on the negligent ones and within forty-eight hours wholesale arrests are to be made if the moneys due are not forthcoming. The commission men in particular will feel the effect of the law.

The crusade is not to be aimed at them alone, however, for every one in the city whose business calls for a payment of a license is under the glare of the license inspector's searchlight.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

Just think of it—free automobiles for every boy in Alameda county, who buys his new suit from us—or a new top, a hummer, a musical top. Both of them are on display in our juvenile window right now. Just wind um up, and off they go. Either one of um makes a nice Easter present and this store generally has something which pleases the boys. We wish we could give one away with every purchase but we can't stand it. They cost too much, so we just decided to give one with every suit, or top coat. Easter Sunday is April 15th, and not so very far away and all the boys in the county will need new clothes before then. So we make this extra offer in hopes you will come here after them. We have our new stock all in now and the tops and autos are ready to go with each suit.

ANTI-CIGARETTE LAW

LINCOLN, Neb., March 22.—The Nebraska Supreme Court today gave a decision on Nebraska's anti-cigarette law, which was tested in the courts by a young man arrested on the charge of rolling a cigarette. The effect of the decision is to sustain the law in general concerning the sale and manufacture of cigarettes, but the rolling of cigarettes by individuals for their own use is not called "manufacturing." A few fines have been paid and sentences served under that part of the law, which is now declared unconstitutional.

OAKDALE, Cal.
H. R. Connelley, Oakland.
Dear Sir: You asked me what I thought of the CONNELLEY LIQUOR CURE after my husband's return home. I will say this: I never saw him look so well and he is a different man altogether. I am worth living for now, and before he took the CURE life was not worth living for; nothing but trouble. If more crazy drunks would take your CURE there would be less suffering children in this world and less heart-broken wives and less divorce cases, and less going to the gas chamber and less suicide to get away from booze. I am sure your CURE will save all who will take it. You are sure doing a great work. Wishing you success, I remain as ever, your friend,
MRS. J. T. MEEK.

HOPLAND, Mendocino county, Cal., January 2, 1906.
This is to certify that I have taken the "Connelley Liquor Cure" and can cheerfully recommend it to any and all addicted to the use of alcoholic drink.
W. DUNCAN.

REDDING, Cal., Sept. 7, 1897.
This is to certify that after being an inveterate consumer of intoxicants for a number of years, I took a course of treatment of the Connelley Liquor Cure, and after several months' experience, can and do cheerfully and heartily recommend the treatment to those who desire to be free from the baneful effects of drink.

me, asking me if you can still use my letter. You certainly can. I am still sober and in the best of health; have no desire for liquor, and you can certainly do the work. You know I made an affidavit to my letter. Why did I? So others would believe me and be cured. Yours with best wishes,
GEO. F. GRAVES.

Never Missed a Meal.
REDDING, Cal., August, 1899.
H. R. Connelley—
Dear Sir: It is now more than a year since I took your treatment, and I have not taken a drink of liquor nor have I had a desire to do so. Neither have I missed a meal. As to from the cure of the liquor disease, I would not take $100 for the benefit it has been to my general health. I think it will cure any of the ills of life except, perhaps, a broken bone. Yours truly,

M. P. KOSHI.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 25, 1900.
Connelley Liquor Cure, Oakland, Cal.
Dear Sir: I am now through with your treatment, and it has done more for me than you claimed. Now that I am sober, with my faculties restored, it is hard to realize my past condition. If the people of Oakland knew what a safe and sure cure for the liquor disease was in their midst, there would be very few drunkards in a short time. I will do all I can for you and your cure. Yours truly,

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 20, 1905.
Three years ago, in April, 1902, I took the "Connelley Liquor Cure," and I now enjoy good health and have no desire for any kind of liquor. Previous to that time, for nineteen years, I was a heavy drinker.

I can recommend the "Connelley Liquor Cure" to any one addicted to the liquor habit. I am well known in Oakland, Cal., and my address is 1055 Willow street.

ng, already have learned of the possibility of a general strike, and Interior Minister Durnovo has sent circulars to the Governors-General and Governors uprissing them of the state of affairs and instructing them to "take the necessary measures" to meet the movement.

Premier Witte's project to permit the peasant banks to issue 5 per cent bonds to finance the purchase of land from the proprietors, and its sale to the peasants, has been adopted by the Council of the Empire. The majority of estates are heavily mortgaged to the nobles and private banks with foreign connections, and the bonds will be used to satisfy these meetings, the banks guaranteeing six per cent interest for fifteen years on the balance due the landowners.

QUESTION OF METHOD.
The question of the methods which the peasants are to follow in making their payments has not yet been resolved. At this stage the scheme does not involve expropriation by law, nor the compulsory sale of estates to the peasant banks. As a means of expediting the trials of political prisoners, with whom the prisons are filled, the Council of the Empire has considered a law empowering public prosecutors on their own motion to bring offenders to trial, without awaiting an order from a superior court, which, under the existing law, involves indefinite delays.

SWEDISH SOCIETY AT FESTAL BOARD

The Swedish Society of Oakland held its fifth anniversary banquet at the Hotel Metropole last night. The society is about thirty-two years old and has a membership of 200. About eighty of these partook of the good thing provided last night. Toastmaster A. Southernland handled the position gracefully and with much ease.

C. T. Peterson responded to the first toast and made quite a lengthy talk in the Swedish tongue.
O. G. Rohl, called upon next, spoke very highly of California and the advantages it offers to the Swede.
Mr. Freeman spoke upon the origin of the Swedish Society. C. J. Larson then made a short address.

SECRET OF A BANKER

Keeps Two Wives for Three Years in the Same City.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Thomas W. Kiley, a millionaire bank president and hardware dealer of Brooklyn, has for the past three years kept two wives in separate establishments, less than a half mile apart.

Kiley, in reply to questions, broke down today and admitted all. He said he had no excuse to offer, save that he loved both women and that he married the second wife when he felt sure his first and legal wife was about to die.

Kiley's legal wife lives in his mansion on Jefferson avenue with her two sons and two daughters by her first husband. She was the wife of James Kiley, a brother of Thomas. James Kiley died twelve years ago and she married her brother-in-law.

The second wife is housed in a magnificent place in Brooklyn avenue. She is known as Mrs. Flora A. Colt and lives with her son by her first husband, who was a Westerner. She was Flora Brown, daughter of Guy R. Brown, a wealthy hardware dealer of Brooklyn, with whom many years ago Kiley started in life as a clerk.

BANK PRESIDENT

Kiley, who is sixty-three years old, is president of the North Side Bank of Williamsburg, and is reputed to be worth several millions. He has a large business under the firm name of Thomas W. Kiley & Co., Grand street, Brooklyn. He also is heavily interested in the structural iron business.

With tears in his eyes, the millionaire banker today laid bare his romance and its strange culmination in a polygamous life.

"I have told my legal wife," he said, "of the matter, and she has agreed to ignore Mrs. Colt, yet all is amicable between Mrs. Colt and myself."

He said that he had known Mrs. Colt from childhood, and after her husband died five years ago was on close terms of friendship with her. In October, 1903, his wife was very ill, when he was called to the national convention of bankers in San Francisco. Mrs. Colt accompanied him.

NO SUCCESSOR TO BE CHOSEN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—President John A. Britton of the California Electric Corporation and general manager of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, stated yesterday that he had no intention of creating the position of assistant general manager of the latter company. He said that on the retirement of Allan Pollok, present manager of the company, the position would be abolished and the duties formerly devolving on Pollok would be divided among the other officers. No changes in the designations given officials will be created. The office now held by Pollok was created by the directors and can be abolished by them.

ANOTHER
TAG FOUND

Experts Complete the Work in Feidler's
Office.

While the experts finished their work of going through the books of the Treasurer's office they have made no report of what they found and have announced that they will make their report to the Board of Supervisors. It is understood, however, that there will be no material change from the figures already given out and that the shortage will amount to about $15,000.

A subject that received some attention from those looking into the matter were the tags dated prior to 1891, and especially one tag written out by Charles H. Feidler and dated February 19, 1891, on which Feidler's name was stamped. The tag is for $900 and the explanation of this as given by Feidler is that the teachers' annuity fund, which had been in Feidler's hands, was used to pay the annuity of the teachers, and that the fund at that time was found to be $900 short. To make the account balance he made out this tag and when Feidler's attention was called to it he took the tag and made the amount good and the full amount of the teachers' annuity fund was then placed on special deposit.

Another indication of indebtedness to Feidler was discovered by Chief Deputy Edward Plummer this morning, who, in looking through the big vault where the money is kept, found a memorandum in Feidler's handwriting as follows: "Feb. 25, '04, J. W. Thompson $25. Mar. 10, '04." This paper, supposed to be an I. O. U., was placed with the other tags found among Feidler's effects.

TEACHERS WILL HOLD MEETING

The following circular has been issued from the office of the superintendent of schools:

"To the principals and teachers of the Oakland school district: A meeting of the fifth and sixth grade teachers in the Common School Assembly Hall on Thursday, March 22, at 3:30 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the salary question. Please bring with you a copy of the elementary history used in the schools.

The meeting will be held in the hall of the second series of reading lessons for the A. B. grade.

Please take notice that the outing to Marin county is postponed on account of the bad weather until Saturday, March 24. (For information in reference to time and place see Circular No. 22.)

Salary orders for March will be drawn on the State fund and money will not be available to pay these warrants until about the middle of July next. Send in your time reports as soon as school opens and your teachers have reported on Friday morning, March 30, instruct your messenger to wait for salary orders. Respectfully,

W. W. McCLYMmonds,

RATE BILL
IN SENATE

Important Measure Still Under Discussion in Upper House.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—When the Statehood bill was received from the House, Senator Beveridge, chairman of the committee on territories, moved that the Senate insist upon its amendments and agree to the request for a conference.

Senator Foraker moved to amend this motion to provide that the Senate, instead of the Vice-President, appoint the conferees. The adoption of Senator Foraker's motion would allow the conferees to name the conferees upon Mr. Foraker's suggestion the whole matter went over until tomorrow, and Mr. Spooner took the floor on the rate bill.

The railroad rate bill was then taken up and Mr. Lodge addressed the Senate in support of his amendment, providing for the displacement of the present interstate commerce commission by one of a larger number of commissioners, and with longer terms of office and better pay. He said that the object of the provision was to strengthen the commission, so as to insure for it the support and respect of the public.

"There seems," he said, "to be a tacit understanding that if the rate question is referred to the Interstate Commerce Commission all will be well. We go on the theory that the thing can do no wrong."

It was his purpose to show that such was not necessarily the case. He then outlined the vast interests that would be entrusted to the commission, and read a carefully prepared statement relative to rates as indicative of the vast magnitude of the entire subject.

Mr. Lodge referred to the present commission to enter upon a campaign together with commercial bodies to secure the amendment of the existing laws.

He will proceed to point out how this proceeding differs from the course of other executive officials in their efforts to secure changes in the laws.

BEFORE THE JURY

County Censors Hear Evidence in an Alameda Case.

Notwithstanding the subpoena served upon Emil Kochendorfer, Lena Horn and Louisa Costa, of Alameda, they failed to make an appearance before the Grand Jury this morning, and their absence brought to light the fact that although they had been properly served they were securely held by Justice of the Peace R. B. Tappan of Alameda, before whom a case in which Kochendorfer is being tried for selling liquor to the girls is now on before him, and in this connection an amusing story was told of how Deputy Sheriff Reilly was stopped yesterday by Judge Tappan, who thought that the defendant was being bodily kidnapped in open court.

The subpoenas for the Grand Jury were given to Deputy Sheriff Reilly to serve and he went to Alameda yesterday and called at the Reception saloon kept by Kochendorfer, and was informed that he would probably be found at Tappan's court. Supposing that Kochendorfer was merely a spectator Reilly asked the bailiff to call him out, but instead of this, Reilly was invited into the judge's chambers and Kochendorfer was then requested to step in. All this took place during the trial of the case.

When Kochendorfer started into the chambers in response to the request, Judge Tappan, perceiving the defendant in the act of walking away, in stentorian tones commanded him to stop, and proceeded to make an investigation. He was told that a deputy sheriff from Oakland had a subpoena to serve.

"Bring him here," said the judge. Deputy Sheriff Reilly was summoned before the bar of justice and stated that he had no idea Kochendorfer was any more than a spectator at the trial of the case, and that he wished to serve a subpoena on him.

Following, and Justice Tappan announced a five minutes' recess, in which to allow Reilly to serve the process. When this was done the trial proceeded.

Notwithstanding this fact, however, Kochendorfer and the two girls failed to put in an appearance this morning for the reason that the trial of the preliminary hearing of the matter is not yet completed, and it is probable that the Grand Jury will not hear the stories of the principals in the latest Alameda scandal.

A number of other witnesses, however, were in attendance on the Grand Jury in connection with the matter, and told what they know of the facts of the case. The charge made is that Lena Horn and Louisa Costa, two young girls, in company with William Gardner, a one-time prizefighter, visited the saloons of Kochendorfer and Nick Reinecker, where the girls were given drink, and finally, in company with Gardner and another man, were taken to the Pacific Hotel, kept by Mrs. Janjou, where they remained overnight. Janjou was in attendance on the Grand Jury, but stated that she had sold the hotel about a week ago, and was not on duty that night. She states, however, that the people came there and got the rooms, which were rented to them by G. W. Ryne, the man she employed as night clerk. Her present home, she said, was at 548 Haight avenue.

Robert Benjamin and Gus Wagner, bartenders, were also present, being charged with having sold the liquor. They were present and told their stories to the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury also called S. J. Pembroke before it and asked him concerning certain statements made by the Rev. Robert Whitaker in regard to Percy Pembroke having been in company with a deputy sheriff. He denied having knowledge of any such occurrence.

ALAMEDA, March 22.—The investigation by the Grand Jury in the matter of William E. Gardner, who was held to answer on a charge of assault on complaint of Lena Horn, was the cause this morning of the postponement until this afternoon of the case of William Kochendorfer, who has been called before Judge Tappan on a charge of selling liquor to two girls.

When the matter came up in Justice Tappan's court, word was received that the Grand Jury had subpoenaed Kochendorfer, Lena Horn, and other witnesses. Attorney S. S. Sure, representing the defendant, declared that the Grand Jury had no right to interfere with the processes of law, and that his client had a right to a speedy trial. Some argument ensued and when District Attorney Allen communicated with Judge Tappan on the telephone in regard to the Grand Jury subpoena, the court decided to postpone the case until two o'clock this afternoon.

It is believed the Grand Jury will take up the investigation of the entire matter today and that possibly a body will also be called to investigate the case of pool selling and other delinquencies during the recent investigations.

CASE SUBMITTED

Arguments have been completed in the suit brought by H. V. Morehouse and others against Abner Paul Marston of San Jose for $60,000 attorney's fees alleged to be due from Marston by virtue of a contract whereby he agreed to procure for Morehouse twenty per cent of what money was secured for him from the estate of late John A. Marston, who left an estate of $1,000,000. Young Marston received about $300,000 and is to receive twenty per cent of this amount. The case was submitted to Judge Melvin for decision, who said he would probably be out of five weeks before he could get to the consideration of it.

WIFE SCALDS HUSBAND TO DEATH

Poured Boiling Water Over Him
While He Was Sleeping
in Bed.

MERCED, March 22.—Mrs. James Dedmon is accused of having murdered her husband at Bear Valley, Mariposa county, by throwing boiling water over him while he was sleeping. The tragedy occurred early on Monday morning and he died Wednesday afternoon. Dedmon conducted a store at Bear Valley. Mrs. Dedmon formerly was the wife of John Cavagnaro, who ran a store in Yosemite and also in Fresno flats. Cavagnaro was killed by an Indian eight years ago, and his widow married Dedmon in Yosemite. Later they moved to Bear Valley. She is under arrest, charged with murder.

Dedmon was working for the State in the Yosemite when he married Mrs. Cavagnaro. She was of a quarrelsome nature and got into trouble with the authorities in the valley and finally Guardian Miles Wallace closed her store and ordered her out. Then she and Dedmon went to Bear Valley, where they have ever since conducted a general merchandising store.

There are four children to the Cavagnaro union. The oldest, a boy of 19, attends school in Stockton. The other three were in the house when the tragedy occurred, but they knew nothing of it until the next day.

At this time it is not known whether there was a quarrel preceding the tragedy which prompted the wife to inflict such a horrible death on her sleeping husband.

NEARLY KILLED

PASO ROBLES, March 22.—While riding with her husband, Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl, the beautiful society woman of San Francisco, met with a serious accident, which almost had a fatal ending. Mrs. Kohl, who is an enthusiastic equestrienne, was thrown from her horse on the county road and was dragged a distance of thirty feet before she became disentangled from the reins.

Mr. Kohl, who was riding ahead, knew nothing of the accident to his wife until the frightened horse dashed past him at full speed. Then he saw that the saddle was empty and guessed what had happened. A ride of a minute brought Mr. Kohl to the side of the injured woman. She was lying just as the horse had left her. She was bleeding and unconscious.

Mr. Kohl lifted the unconscious form of his wife to the saddle and rode with her back to the hotel. There the house physician made a cursory examination and found that while the young matron's injuries were painful, they were not necessarily fatal.

Mrs. Kohl is at present confined to her bed and a physician in constant attendance. An automobile was responsible for the accident which came so near ending fatally for Mrs. Kohl.

George Leslie Jr., arrested by Officer Fahy at 1:45 o'clock this morning and booked for vagrancy and being drunk, appeared before Judge Samuels this morning. He was arrested on a warrant sworn to by his father, George Leslie.

DEATH

Poured Boiling Water Over Him
While He Was Sleeping
in Bed.

MERCED, March 22.—Mrs. James Dedmon is accused of having murdered her husband at Bear Valley, Mariposa county, by throwing boiling water over him while he was sleeping. The tragedy occurred early on Monday morning and he died Wednesday afternoon. Dedmon conducted a store at Bear Valley. Mrs. Dedmon formerly was the wife of John Cavagnaro, who ran a store in Yosemite and also in Fresno flats. Cavagnaro was killed by an Indian eight years ago, and his widow married Dedmon in Yosemite. Later they moved to Bear Valley. She is under arrest, charged with murder.

Dedmon was working for the State in the Yosemite when he married Mrs. Cavagnaro. She was of a quarrelsome nature and got into trouble with the authorities in the valley and finally Guardian Miles Wallace closed her store and ordered her out. Then she and Dedmon went to Bear Valley, where they have ever since conducted a general merchandising store.

There are four children to the Cavagnaro union. The oldest, a boy of 19, attends school in Stockton. The other three were in the house when the tragedy occurred, but they knew nothing of it until the next day.

At this time it is not known whether there was a quarrel preceding the tragedy which prompted the wife to inflict such a horrible death on her sleeping husband.

NEARLY

PASO ROBLES, March 22.—While riding with her husband, Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl, the beautiful society woman of San Francisco, met with a serious accident, which almost had a fatal ending. Mrs. Kohl, who is an enthusiastic equestrienne, was thrown from her horse on the county road and was dragged a distance of thirty feet before she became disentangled from the reins.

Mr. Kohl, who was riding ahead, knew nothing of the accident to his wife until the frightened horse dashed past him at full speed. Then he saw that the saddle was empty and guessed what had happened. A ride of a minute brought Mr. Kohl to the side of the injured woman. She was lying just as the horse had left her. She was bleeding and unconscious.

Mr. Kohl lifted the unconscious form of his wife to the saddle and rode with her back to the hotel. There the house physician made a cursory examination and found that while the young matron's injuries were painful, they were not necessarily fatal.

Mrs. Kohl is at present confined to her bed and a physician in constant attendance. An automobile was responsible for the accident which came so near ending fatally for Mrs. Kohl.

GAMBLING BEFORE
GRAND JURY

ALAMEDA, March 22.—The investigation by the Grand Jury in the matter of William E. Gardner, who was held to answer on a charge of assault on complaint of Lena Horn, was the cause this morning of the postponement until this afternoon of the case of William Kochendorfer, who has been called before Judge Tappan on a charge of selling liquor to two girls.

When the matter came up in Justice Tappan's court, word was received that the Grand Jury had subpoenaed Kochendorfer, Lena Horn, and other witnesses. Attorney S. S. Sure, representing the defendant, declared that the Grand Jury had no right to interfere with the processes of law, and that his client had a right to a speedy trial. Some argument ensued and when District Attorney Allen communicated with Judge Tappan on the telephone in regard to the Grand Jury subpoena, the court decided to postpone the case until two o'clock this afternoon.

It is believed the Grand Jury will take up the investigation of the entire matter today and that possibly a body will also be called to investigate the case of pool selling and other delinquencies during the recent investigations.

CASE SUBMITTED

Arguments have been completed in the suit brought by H. V. Morehouse and others against Abner Paul Marston of San Jose for $60,000 attorney's fees alleged to be due from Marston by virtue of a contract whereby he agreed to procure for Morehouse twenty per cent of what money was secured for him from the estate of late John A. Marston, who left an estate of $1,000,000. Young Marston received about $300,000 and is to receive twenty per cent of this amount. The case was submitted to Judge Melvin for decision, who said he would probably be out of five weeks before he could get to the consideration of it.

MASON
TO ACT

Will Lay Corner Stone of
New Building in Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—President Roosevelt will take part in the laying of the cornerstone of the new office building for members of the House of Representatives on Saturday, April 7th. The ceremony will be almost identical with the laying of the cornerstone of the U. S. Capitol building by President Washington, July 13, 1793.

The Federal Masonic Lodge, which had charge of the ceremonies over a century ago, will have the honor of directing the swinging of the cornerstone of the House annex into place.

MASONIC LODGE.

Walter A. Brown, the Grand Master of the Masonic lodge of the District of Columbia, will superintend the exercises, and addresses will be made by the President and Speaker Cannon.

Three thousand invitations will be issued to prominent men throughout the United States. The Cabinet, Diplomatic Corps, Senators, members of the House, the United States Supreme Court, Governors of the various states, prominent army and navy officers and other Government officials will attend the ceremony.

TRADITION.

In accordance with tradition, the stone is at the northeast corner of the building, and its location corresponds with that of the Capitol cornerstone. Since the original Capitol was built wings have been added at the north and south ends, so the keystone of the building is now well towards the center of that great structure.

The foundation of the magnificent new office building is completed and the floor beams for the first story are now in place. Upon these a temporary floor will be laid and seats provided for the guests who will view the ceremony. The light woodwork of the foundation will be partially torn away, that a view of the ceremony may be had by persons who cannot be provided with seats.

In accordance with Masonic tradition, the ceremony will be in the open air, and the persons who participate in it will have no protection from the weather, regardless of what conditions may prevail. Simplicity will mark the event and all pretension will be avoided. In every detail it will correspond as nearly as possible to the ceremony which was held at the Washington building.

The articles placed in the cornerstone, as far as practicable, will be identical with those deposited in the Capitol stone by Federal Lodge, and as both President Roosevelt and Speaker Cannon are members of the Masonic Order, the occasion will in every way harmonize with the spirit of the ceremony directed by the Virginia jurisdiction.

The Senate office building, which is in course of construction immediately north of the Capitol grounds, will so to speak be the House building. The Senate office building, which is in course of construction immediately north of the Capitol grounds, will so to speak be the House building.

These two buildings, when completed, will take the place of additions originally planned to the Capitol building, but which were they would mar the architectural scheme of that structure.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Chosen by Delegates to Junior Order of Mechanics.

The election of officers for the ensuing year by the delegates to the annual convention of the Junior Order United American Mechanics was held yesterday afternoon. The new officers are as follows:

State councilor Fred C. Patterson, San Francisco, State vice-councilor L. C. Shannon, Oakland, State council secretary Herman Paine, Oakland, State council treasurer C. M. Prather, Stockton.

The next State convention will be held at Riverdale, March 20 of next year.

An address on immigration by Past State Councilor W. E. Bouton was delivered. His speech follows:

About the year 1828 a great American author and historian defined the word immigration as being the act of passing or coming into a country for the purpose of permanent residence. This period was practically the beginning of a rapid annual increase of those worthy sons of Keltic and Teutonic origin who realized that in the young Republic of America could not only be found an asylum from the oppression of tyrannical monarchies but also that with its broad fields and lofty mountains lay dormant a never-ending supply of bounteousness and plenty only awaiting the magic wand of industry and enterprise to bestow upon them their material blessings.

The immigrants were the pioneers who blazed the trails through our virgin forests and tilled the soil of our fields, and ever since that time they have been the backbone of our great country. They have not only sustained us in our darkest hours but have also broken the way for the future.

When the oncoming tide assumed enormous proportions, it was the duty of our body politic to take steps to protect the rights of our native-born citizens. The later immigrants have not only brought with them the same old world customs and habits but also the same old world prejudices and animosities.

SUCCESS

The qualities that produce success in all "A" (Triangle A) brands are mellow fragrance, blended richness and consistent quality. All these virtues are combined in every cigar that comes from a box marked "A". Well representing the "A" brands is the

RENOWN

CIGAR—FIVE CENTS

These exceptional qualities, for which "A" stands, are due to the American Cigar Company's processes of real blending before manufacture, as opposed to old-time "hit-or-miss" mixing during manufacture, thus giving the cigar a smooth, invariable character. Try a Renown cigar, five cents, and in every puff, from tip to tip, you will easily note the reason for the wonderful success of these excellent cigars.

INSURANCE RATES RAISED BY WOODMEN

CHICAGO, March 22.—The grand lodge officers of the Ancient Order of United Workmen decided yesterday at a meeting here to raise the insurance rates of the order for members more than 55 years of age. The increase will make the rates 85 per cent higher than at present.

The cause for the action was the inability to meet death claims that have accrued during the past three months. The officers believe that with the additional funds resulting from the increased rate the outstanding claims will be met and hope that at the end of the year they will be able to return to the old schedule.

It was the unanimous opinion of the grand lodge officers that any fraternal organization in good standing ought to be able to pay death claims within thirty days after proofs are filed. This the Workmen have not been able to do lately.

An entertaining program of song and recitation by local talent will supplement the lecture. Doors will open at 7:30 o'clock and the program will begin at 8 o'clock. Admission free.

SUBMITS CASE TO THE JURY

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Judge McPherson, in the United States Circuit Court today delivered his charge to the jury which for over a week has sat in judgment on George P. Brock, former cashier of the Boylston National Bank, indicted for embezzlement, absconding with the funds of that institution.

Henry Lear, brother-in-law of Brock and former president of the bank was convicted on similar charges and is now under $100,000 bail his case having been appealed. Following the delivery of instructions the jury retired.

DEATH CLAIMS OFFICIAL'S WIFE

MARTINEZ, March 22.—Mrs. Torrey wife of Patrick Torrey who for twenty-five years has been a Supervisor of Contra Costa county, died suddenly at 10 o'clock last night at the family home at Redwood. She had been in good health throughout the day and was sick only a few minutes before death came. Heart disease is believed to have been the cause.

Mrs. Torrey was a member of the wealthy Matthews family of Oakland and is very well known throughout Contra Costa and Alameda counties. She was about fifty years of age and the mother of several children. Her husband is the dean of the Contra Costa county politicians, and probably is better known than any other man in the county.

PILES

CURED AFTER 50 YEARS WE CAN CURE PILES AND PROVE IT.

Sample Package (Free by Mail, No Cash). You Can Prove It on Yourself. No Surgery.

Piles (or hemorrhoids) rarely kill, but they cause more exquisite agony in a few minutes than much more serious troubles. This is especially true in the case of those who are ever so slightly constipated. It means the certain removal of the agony every morning. It is inevitable and unavoidable.

Piles can now be quickly and perfectly cured without pain cutting or detention from business or occupation. It has already been demonstrated in thousands of cases in both sexes at all ages and in the very worst as well as the ordinary ones.

We propose to let you try it yourself. You have probably been bitterly disappointed by many so-called Pile-cures.

This is why we want you to try our remedy before you pay a penny for it. Then you will know certainly and absolutely whether it will do for you what it has done for so many others. It is for sale in every drug store because people must have it.

No one who has not suffered the tortments of itching, painful or bleeding piles can appreciate for one moment, the marvelous sense of relief that follows the use of the Pyramid Pile Cure. You can go to the toilet without dread or fear, you can cure yourself at home without the slightest trouble, inconvenience or difficulty.

Follow a few easy and simple directions and get well and stay well. Go to your druggist at once and buy a box of Pyramid Pile Cure for 50 cents.

Here for instance is a sample of the kind of letters we get every day and we don't have to ask for them.

"Friend I write to tell what good your Pyramid Pile Cure has done for me. I used your sample, and it did me so much good I went and got two boxes and I used and I am another man altogether. I have no pain no piles and I have been troubled with them for over 50 years and could find no relief till now thanks to your timely cure. Use my name if it will do you any good. Fraternal Societies Show Advancement and Growth as Result of Their Efforts.

GOLDEN GATE CAMP.

Golden Gate Camp, R. N. of A., held its regular weekly meeting Monday night at Pythian Castle on Twelfth street and there was a good attendance. Several applications for membership were made. We are to have children's night April 16, and we want all royal neighbors who have children to come and bring them, for the entire evening is to be theirs and we have a good time prepared for them. Be sure and be to lodge Monday night, as it is our basket social night.

UNCAS TRIBE, I. O. R. M.

Uncas Tribe No. 137, I. O. R. M., will give another pleasant social party on Monday evening, March 26, at Pythian Hall, Twelfth and Franklin streets. The whole party given by this tribe heretofore have been most successful in every way and the one in question will no doubt be to the same standard as those given in the past. The party will be given by the tribe and the whole party will be given by the tribe and the whole party will be given by the tribe.

GOLDEN GATE CAMP, M. W.

Golden Gate Camp No. 1236, Modern Woodmen, will hold its regular session this evening at its hall, corner of Clay and Eleventh streets. On April 5 there is to be a class adoption given by the camps of Richmond, Berkeley, Diamond and Oakland at the above hall, and it is hoped that all neighbors will attend this session. Come out and meet Neighbor District Deputy Powell, he has arrived here.

LIVE OAK LODGE, K. of P.

Last Tuesday evening was a gala night for Live Oak Lodge No. 17, K. of P., at which time was held the regular session, which was one of interest and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The attendance was unusually large, a great many visiting brothers from this and other grand domains being present. At the closing of the lodge all present turned to and enjoyed a light repast in the shape of all delicacies and coffee.

As a toastmaster, Brother Bert M. Roldman was a complete success and in his usual affable manner called upon the different brothers present, each of whom willingly and ably responded. Brother P. C. B. Gars, the well known Pythian orator of Oakland Lodge No. 103 and an ever welcome visitor to Live Oak Lodge, spoke principally upon the building of our new Pythian Castle and his remarks were well received. P. C. B. Frank Herald followed in his agreeable, whole-souled manner and his remarks were very pleasing and greatly enjoyed.

It was indeed a pleasure to have with us several of the older members who, on account of poor health, have been deprived of the pleasure of meeting with us. "Smiling Peter" Staples was also on hand, and as usual his genial, smiling face was a welcome sight, and what he had to say took us all back to the time when he was able to be with us every session.

Brother P. C. John Sloan sprang an agreeable surprise in the shape of a recitation, which was very creditably rendered and suitable to the occasion. Take it all in all, it was one of the most enjoyable evenings spent in Live Oak Lodge for months. Brothers, you are always welcome, come again.

LIBERTY COMPANY, W. R. K. of P. Despite the inclemency of the weather, the regular assembly of Liberty Company No. 11, was largely attended last Tuesday evening.

Following an interesting drill, a special business session with many important matters were presented. Arrangements have been nearly completed for the regular annual outing of Old Liberty, to be held on Tuesday, May 1, at East Shore Park, Contra Costa county.

The park is a beautiful strip of seventeen acres, containing all the facilities necessary for a splendid, enjoyable and interesting day's outing. Situated as it is, it can be reached by electric service, thereby enabling our many friends and brothers to come and go as they see fit. The company has arranged to run special cars, and everything is being done to make the occasion one of the most successful and pleasant affairs that No. 11 has ever held.

The program will soon be ready for print and will be new and attractive throughout. Dancing, roller skating, games of every description, boating, etc., will be the main features of the day's outing. A full description of the park and further particulars will be published in our next issue. On Monday evening, March 26, the members of this company will accompany and assist Colonel George Samuels to inspect and install the officers of East Oakland Lodge No. 66, in their hall, corner of East Fourteenth and Twelfth streets. A large attendance will no doubt be present, and a right royal good time is assured all who attend.

Next Tuesday evening will be held the regular weekly assembly drill, which will be held promptly at 8 p. m. Sir Knights, remember it is important that all be present.

HARBOR LODGE, I. O. O. F.

At a regular meeting of Harbor Lodge No. 253, I. O. O. F., held on Wednesday evening, March 21st, two applications were received and four candidates elected, and next Wednesday evening a class of ten will be initiated. The officers have been preparing for this occasion and promises are being made to give the visitors a grand good time.

FOREST CIRCLE NO. 122.

Pride of the Forest Circle No. 122, C. O. F., held its meeting last Friday evening with a large attendance. The circle is in a flourishing condition, many new members coming in lately. At the last meeting the circle gave a character social and it was a merry party. Those who took part were Mrs. Ginkley, Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Plancher, Mrs. Mau, fancy dancing by Freddie and Marguerite Mau; comic songs by Mr. Persgrube; songs of old Ireland, by Mrs. O'Connor; Irish jigs and reels by Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Musser. It was a late hour when all went home having enjoyed a merry time.

BEN HUR COURT NO. 12.

Ben Hur Court No. 12 had a very pleasant meeting last Friday evening, there being a good attendance of members and visitors from San Francisco and Oakland. Court. The election for a State representative to attend the big Ben Hur convention in the East next May took place, and as anticipated, Past Chief R. G. Marquardt received the unanimous vote of his court.

At the close of the business a short program of music and address was given, and then refreshments were served. The members are working for and expecting a big attendance and a pleasant time tomorrow (Friday) evening at their ten cent social in their hall, 1234 Seventh street. These socials are enjoyed very much by those who attend.

THE AMERICANS.

Point Richmond contains an assembly of "The Americans," Jefferson No. 21, which is second to none in enthusiasm and earnestness of effort. Brother Wolfert, senate representative, has met with splendid success in building up the order and has done much to cement the fraternal feeling among the members of Assembly No. 21.

OAKLAND NO. 2.

Oakland No. 2 is adding to its membership each week and continues to show a net increase on each month's report to the secretary-general of the order. Brother S. H. Stuart has once more assumed the duties of chairman and is putting forth his best energies to place Oakland No. 2 in the lead and to assist by the other officers in the work he has undertaken. Vice-Chairman Slater Donohue met with a serious accident some weeks ago, but is rapidly recovering and will soon be able to attend the regular assembly meetings.

WASHINGTON NO. 3.

Washington No. 3 has sustained a sad loss in the death of Sister Edith Stetler, who succumbed to an attack of that dread disease, pneumonia, after a brief illness. She died last Monday morning and was buried on Wednesday.

The other assemblies of the order, both in San Francisco and other towns and villages of the State all send in reports of progress and everything points to a successful year in every way for the Americans.

FOUNTAIN LODGE, I. O. O. F.

On Monday evening, March 26, every member of Fountain Lodge No. 188, I. O. O. F., who possibly can, will attend the meeting to celebrate "California's 40th Birthday." The officers are requested to report before 8 p. m. as the following business has to be disposed of: Reports of the various committees acted upon, the election of representatives to the next Grand Lodge, the admission of members by unit, and the initiation of a big bunch of candidates, followed by short talk and refreshments. Visitors are invited. At the last meeting two members were elected, two applications for membership were received. The Second Degree was impressively conferred on two brothers, and Brother F. G. John Tlach, a member of the lodge, was seconded to the position of the responsible office of D. D. G. M., for District No. 64, for the ensuing year.

ANCIENT ORDER FORESTERS.

Court Athens is looking forward to its social dance to be given at Alcatraz Hall, Fortia street near Seventh, Saturday evening, March 24. The committee guarantees all who attend a pleasant time. Athens is progressing splendidly; by the end of the present term it will reach the 150-mark. This speaks well for Ancient Forestry in Alameda county.

The court will be well represented at the convention to be held during the week of April 7, at San Jose. Brothers C. W. Gurner and F. Austin will be the delegates. The Alameda County Picnic Association, composed by Ancient Forestry in Alameda county, is preparing to hold its annual picnic.

LINCOLN NO. 7.

Lincoln Assembly No. 7 meets to-night at Lincoln Hall, South Berkeley. Chairman W. J. Miles and Financier J. J. Menges are striving hard to have their assembly reach the 100 mark before the close of the present term, and we have no doubt that success will crown their efforts.

AMRAM ENCAMPMENT, I. O. O. F. Amram Encampment No. 24, I. O. O. F., will meet this Thursday evening at Twelfth street and Eleventh avenue. Members will report at 8 p. m.

Several candidates are due for the Patriarchal Degree, which will be conferred. Will follow to perfect the team for conferring that degree at the institution of Berkeley Encampment. The night for instituting the next camp has been changed to March 31 instead of the 26th, and the Berkeleyites are making great preparations to give their visitors a grand good time.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Veteran Lodge No. 7, I. O. G. T., meets as usual this evening in Loring Hall, Eleventh and Clay streets. The Veterans were visited last Thursday night by G. S. A. Johnson and D. C. Walter Lingus, both of whom favored the lodge with appropriate speeches, which were greatly enjoyed by those present.

The Veterans were a little surprised and agreeably so, to see Sister West among them again after her severe illness, from which she has just recovered. Sister West is over 80 years old, and still is a regular and faithful attendant when she is able to be out. She is a charter member and has helped wonderfully to build up the lodge.

Will follow to perfect the team for conferring that degree at the institution of Berkeley Encampment. The night for instituting the next camp has been changed to March 31 instead of the 26th, and the Berkeleyites are making great preparations to give their visitors a grand good time.

RICHMOND GOOD TEMPLARS. Success Lodge No. 144 meets every Tuesday evening in Point Richmond, and is a very earnest, industrious young lodge. The members are working for and expecting a big attendance and a pleasant time tomorrow (Friday) evening at their ten cent social in their hall, 1234 Seventh street. These socials are enjoyed very much by those who attend.

IN SAN LEANDRO. Hope Lodge, I. O. G. T., meets every Monday evening in San Leandro, in the German Methodist Church, where they are doing a splendid work. They are organizing a Juvenile Temple in connection with their lodge, and have already made a substantial beginning in the work. They are an earnest worker and fully determined to make the Juvenile Temple a grand success.

VILKINS LODGE, I. O. G. T. meets every Saturday evening in Gier's Hall, on Fourteenth street near Washington street, meeting at 8 p. m. The lodge is doing a splendid work and is fully determined to make the Juvenile Temple a grand success.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE. Home Protection Division No. 58, S. T., will elect officers for the ensuing term on the first Friday in April, and the installation of the newly chosen officers will be at the next regular meeting following. It is hoped that an able set of officers will be chosen to carry on the good work. Visitors are always welcome in Home Protection.

PACIFIC CAMP, R. N. of A. Pacific Camp No. 222, R. N. of A., held its regular weekly meeting in Foresters' Hall, March 16. Several members of Enright Camp of San Francisco were present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Seery, Miss D. Connelly, Miss A. Connelly, Mrs. Connelly, Miss C. Morgan, Mr. Rouse, Mr. C. Johnson, and Mrs. O'Neill. Miss S. Rolner from Indiana was also present. After all business was transacted refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and dancing.

OAKLAND LODGE NO. 103, K. OF P. At 8 o'clock sharp Thursday evening, when Chancellor Commander James Melne called the assemblies of Oakland Lodge to order every session in the hall was occupied. It was estimated that over one-quarter of those present were visitors. The Supreme Domain was represented from the frigid shores of the Pacific, from the great lakes of the north to the tropical climate at the south of

THE MEN AND WOMEN

Who Enjoy the Choicest Products of the World's Commerce.

Knowledge of What is Best More Important Than Wealth Without It.

It must be apparent to every one that the quality of the highest order are necessary to enable the best of the products of modern commerce to attain permanently to universal acceptance. However loudly heralded, they may not hope for world-wide prominence unless they meet with the general approval of not only individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting, enjoying and learning the real worth of the choicest products. Their commendation, consequently, becomes important to others, since to meet the requirements of the well informed of all countries the method of manufacture must be of the most perfect order and the combination the most excellent of its kind. The above is true not of food products only, but is especially applicable to medicinal agents and after nearly a quarter of a century of growth and general use the excellent remedy, Syrup of Figs, is everywhere accepted, throughout the world, as the best of family laxatives. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants known to act most beneficially on the system and presented in the form of a pleasant and refreshing liquid, but also to the method of manufacture of the California Fig Syrup Company, which ensures the uniformity and purity essential in a remedy intended for family use. Ask any physician who is well informed and he will answer at once that it is an excellent laxative. If at all eminent in his profession and has made a special study of laxatives and their effects upon the system he will tell you that it is the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after-effects. Every well-informed druggist of reputable standing knows that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative and is glad to sell it, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, because it gives general satisfaction, but one should remember that in order to get the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs it is necessary to buy the genuine, which is sold in original packages only; the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs and also the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

DRUNKENNESS CURED

Give Orrine and Destroy All Desire for Drink Sold Under Guarantee.

The medical profession has long since recognized the fallacy of attempting to cure a drinking man of his inebriation by means of a sedative. Drunkenness is a disease and no disease is more common and more seldom recognized as a victim of the drink habit can more resist liquor than a man with acute can resist shivering. The terrible craving for liquor is a symptom of disease, and to overcome it the disease itself should be treated in a scientific way. When one has used Orrine, he has used other stimulants for a long time, the nerves have become accustomed to the effects of the stimulants and demand liquor in order to perform their duties. If the nerve cells are properly treated, the craving for liquor will be destroyed. This is far too practical an age for "faith cure" fallacies. It will not now be contended by many sane persons that organic disease can be cured by mental processes.

In the matter of Chinese immigration, the President was equally incisive and clear. He stated his unalterable opposition to the admission of Chinese laborers, skilled and unskilled, but expressed himself in favor of making it easier for merchants and students to land; assuring his hearers, however, that relaxation of regulations in this particular would not be permitted to further the ingress of the contraband class. He pointed out that there are fewer Chinese in the country today than there were ten years ago, fewer ten years ago than twenty years ago and fewer twenty years ago than thirty years ago. The Chinese population has steadily declined since the passage of the first restrictive laws.

STENOGRAPHER, BRIDE OF N. Y. MILLIONAIRE

Jerome Alexandre, 20 Years Old, Secretly Weds Poor Working Girl.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Society was astonished today by the announcement that Jerome Alexandre, a young millionaire, was secretly married last Thursday to Miss Violet Adelaide Oakley, who earns her living as a stenographer to his stepfather, Paul Bonner.

Alexandre is twenty years old. He left Princeton a year ago without graduating. He is a son of the late James Joseph Alexandre, head of the steamship firm of J. J. Alexandre & Co. With his sister Leona he is joint heir to a fortune of more than $300,000 left by their father. Miss Oakley's age is given as twenty-two years.

Mrs. Nathalie Alexandre-Bonner, mother of the bridegroom, says she has no objection to the match, and has invited the pair to live with her at her country home, "Nirvana," in Stamford, Conn.

It was from "Nirvana" that an 800-pound safe, containing $18,000 worth of jewels, belonging to Mrs. Bonner, was stolen last summer under peculiar circumstances.

LEAVES HUSBAND WHO TALKS IN HIS SLEEP

Tired Ohio Woman Quits and Sues for Housekeeper's Wages.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 22.—Judge Rodgers, of this county, believes that a wife is worth at least $25 a month as a housekeeper. He awarded Mrs. Jennie Middleton that amount in her suit for wages against her husband, Joel Middleton.

According to the testimony, the marriage of the Middletons was somewhat of a business arrangement. Among other things, the couple agreed that if Mrs. Middleton outlived her husband, she was to receive $1500.

Two months after the wedding Mrs. Middleton left her husband. She asserted that she worked hard all day, and that at night she could get no rest.

All night long she declares, Middleton talked in his sleep, and when he wasn't talking, he was snoring loudly.

Not wishing to lose the whole of the $1500, she entered suit for two months' wages at $25 per month.

LONDON SMART SET IS SERIOUS; QUILTS CARDS

LONDON, March 22.—George Bernard Shaw remarked the other day that if the women of the English titled and aristocratic sets were really honest in their study of Plato and his theories on cold-blooded affection, the divorce courts would soon go out of business.

Not in many years has London been so deeply interested in the study of serious things as now. Bridge, whist, the dance and other frivolities have been rivaled by this new fad.

One of the remarkable results of this wave is the rise of Platonism. A Plato Committee has been organized by the Duchess of Marlborough, the Duchess of Sutherland and Lady Leigh, and Dr. Emil Reich, eminent German philosopher, has been made its high priest. Classes are held weekly.

Lady Troubridge is another who is leading a set which advocates the "higher thought." Then there are the "Souls," a body of men and women trying to discover something about the future existence.

CRUSADE AGAINST THE MUSTACHE?

*Shall the Wives and Sweethearts
Throughout Oakland Start a War on Whiskers?*

By HELEN WARWICK.

It has been said that a woman's crowning beauty is her hair—evidently a man's chief vanity is his mustache, if he happens to possess one.

And, judging from the woe-begone expression of the jolly fellows who hold sway in the Receiving Hospital, the loss of the aforesaid article is indeed a grievous affair.

We newspaper people grow to look upon our little Receiving Hospital with much favor, and many times have I entered to meet in the vestibule big, fair, jolly Harry Borchert, his upper lip flying the yellow emblem of manhood—a truly artistic blond mustache. Or I have been escorted down the hall to look upon some poor victim, whom I was to interview, by Mr. Page, a fine-looking, dark fellow, with a handsome black cropped mustache.

BEHOLD! THEY'RE GONE.
Today I entered the place through my customary door—the aforesaid vestibule, about which still lingered the faint odor of anaesthetics, was deserted, and the little hospital might have been a city of the dead, so quiet it was, so solemn the atmosphere in which I found myself. I stood for a few moments contemplating the scene, or rather the lack of the usual evergreen scenery, and then coughed mildly, then more loudly, and then strenuously.

Finally my efforts were rewarded, for into the hall stalked—if such a man could be said to stalk—a solemn-looking individual, who really had to introduce himself before I recognized the former jolly-looking Mr. Borchert.

I glanced at him and then looked harder, and then stared openly, for the big blond fellow was clean-shaven.

"The mustache story?" and his customary smile was very faint, comparatively—"Miss Warwick, come with me. Such a time as we've had, and don't we look like a pack of monkeys?" Without more ado I was conducted into the presence of the two most woe-begone looking men, while my escort stood in the doorway—a picture—hardly knowing whether to laugh or look sheepish.

In the corner sat Mr. Page, and he, too, lacked his usual facial adornment; he was in the same class with Mr. Borchert, for his face was smooth. Over and over his blue upper lip he passed his hand, meditatively, sadly, while he murmured:

"The first time in fifteen years—the first time in fifteen years."

LAUGHS AT MISFORTUNE.

Possibly I did not realize the due solemnity of the occasion, maybe, not being a man, I cannot realize the full enormity of the strain and sacrifice through which these men have but recently passed, but, at any rate, I smiled broadly—in fact, I laughed outright at their sorrowful expression, as I said:

"So all mustaches in the medical profession are tabooed? Too bad, but then, for my part, I like to see a man smooth-shaven."

Talk of a woman's vanity! At this both men sat up and one—whom I shall not say—exclaimed:

"Oh, Miss Warwick, do you think so—well it is cleaner, isn't it? But don't you think we look too young?"

"Too young," I hastened to reply, while Mr. Page stroked his upper lip. "To be young is surely nothing to object to. It is a privilege, and, as I have said, I like a clean-shaven man."

APPEAR, THAT SMILE.

Mr. Borchert's merry old smile over-spread his blond face as he exclaimed: "Like all men, I am susceptible, very susceptible to flattery—" and I broke in with "Yes, I believe you. Talk of a woman's vanity—beside a man's it is microscopic," and all three men beamed in a pleased manner.

Few women, I think, care to be termed vain, but what phrases please a man more—even though they frequently deny it.

Two days ago the order came that mustaches in the hospital were to be things of history—not even excluding the one of fifteen years' standing, for sanitation has no respect for age, it seems.

Mr. Borchert's came off yesterday.

"And my wife almost died, and the children—well, my little two-year-old sat on my knee and ran her hands over my face, 'Papa hath eyes and one nose and yellow hair he hath, but—' and here the little tyke stopped and looked at her father in perplexity—something was gone and she missed it; something was lacking, and she knew it; but a babe of two years could scarcely be expected to realize the enormity of the situation—how sad the calamity which had overtaken the House of Borchert in the loss of that mustache."

WOW! WHAT'LL HAPPEN?

"Well," cried Mr. Page from his corner, as he stroked his blue upper lip, "Well, you've faced your family—you've had it out. But what'll happen when I face my wife tonight? I can only imagine. Did I kick against it? You bet I did, but the rule held firm and off it came."

A young doctor looked at me and laughed outright. "Such a time as we had—thought we'd have to tie him to the operating table and remove it with the aid of anaesthetics, but he finally compromised by a special barber being called, soothing lotions being applied and a lot of fighting being done. Mighty handsome he looks, though, doesn't he?"

And, surely, if all bemustached men looked as infinitely improved after their loss I think it is up to you, wives and sweethearts, to institute a crusade having for its emblem the motto, "Mustaches must go."

WHY WAS IT DONE?

And why was it done? After all these years it has been decided that sanitation demands that no beards or mustaches be admitted to the operating room—a wise precaution, as it is well known that hair is one of the chief homes of the dreaded bacteria, that it is practically impossible to keep it sterile and that therefore it must go.

Sad, indeed, has been the trial of these young doctors, whose vanity has been wounded in a susceptible spot, but to them I extend a hand of good cheer, and bid them realize that their sacrifice has been to the cause of science.

LITTLE GIRL PLAYS "SKIP ROPE," DIES

Taken Sick at Night After Over-exerting Herself at the Game.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Lena Fisher, seven years old, died in Mount Sinai Hospital yesterday from illness supposed to have been caused by overexertion at the game of "skip the rope." She lived at 1409 South Franklin street.

The child was taken to the hospital Sunday afternoon while she was in an unconscious condition. On the previous Wednesday she and several other little girls about her age played "skip the rope." Lena was particularly active while the game was in progress, jumping the rope oftener than any of her playmates.

In the evening she was suddenly taken sick. She was very restless, and complained of nausea and severe pains in her head. Her condition did not become alarming until Friday, when she lapsed into unconsciousness.

Immediately after the child became unconscious a physician, who had been attending her, advised that she be taken to the hospital, where she died.

MOTHER STOPS CHILD'S MARRIAGE AT ALTAR

Dramatically Forbids Minister to Perform Ceremony for Daughter.

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 22.—The course of true love received a rude shock recently, when E. A. Turner and Miss Pearl Coleman were not married after they had eloped.

As the words, "I pronounce you man and wife," hung on the lips of the Rev. Robert Vandeventer, the mother of Miss Coleman rushed into the room and forbade the marriage. The bride fainted.

Dr. Vandeventer begged Mrs. Coleman to allow the wedding ceremony to proceed. To this she was obdurate.

Mrs. Coleman is prominent and wealthy. Her daughter is fourteen years old.

300-POUND MAN DIES ON ANTI-FAT REMEDY

Reduces His Weight Rapidly in Two Weeks and Brings on Collapse.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Anti-fat killed George C. Bauder, of East New York, according to the report of the coroner's physician.

Bauder weighed nearly 300 pounds about three months ago, and feared he would die of fatty degeneration of the heart. He began to diet himself and take exercise, but he simply piled on more weight.

He then tried an anti-fat remedy, and it worked as advertised. Bauder's weight decreased some fifty pounds in the last two weeks. He suddenly collapsed yesterday and died in a few hours.

The coroner's physician said that the rapid loss in weight had weakened the man's heart.

SMART SET

ENGAGEMENTS, PARTIES FOR BRIDES-ELECT

SMART SET

Number of Delightful Affairs Interrupt Lenten Quiet.

Mrs. Bruce Burnett was hostess today at a delightful affair given at her country home near San Leandro for the fascinating little bride-to-be, Miss Charlotte Elsey.

The dozen invited guests left this city in automobiles, and were welcomed by the pretty hostess shortly before noon. The house was attractively decorated with sprays of fruit blossoms and ribbon streamers, with American Beauty roses, carried out the color scheme in the table decorations. The favors were exquisite pink roses.

Following the luncheon hour the guest of honor was the recipient of a "linen shower," containing many dainty linen gifts.

Those who participated in the pleasant affair today were Miss Elsey, Mrs. Oscar Luning, Mrs. John F. Connors, Mrs. George E. Perkins, Miss Mabel Reed, Mrs. E. H. Dodge, Miss Blanche Layman, Mrs. F. R. Chadwick, Miss Breiling, Miss White, Mrs. Parker Lyon of Fresno.

MI-CAREME AFFAIR.

Frederick Greenwood entertained last night at a Mi-Careme affair given in the jinks room of the Bohemian Club. The playlet, "There's a Crowd," written by Henry Blossom Jr., of New York, was presented, and also the operetta, "The Broker and the Blonde," both of which were heartily applauded by the guests.

The musical numbers were unusually bright and catchy, and the music was a delightful innovation.

The entertainment was in the nature of a cafe chantant, the guests being seated at numerous small tables. The celling was a bower of greens, from which were suspended Chinese lanterns and brilliant-colored Chinese banners. The programs were quaint brown folders, ornamented with sketches of monks, some in grave and others in gay humor.

Mr. Greenwood's invited guests were: The Russian Ambassador to Japan and his wife, M. and Mme. Bakmeff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eastland, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Dwight Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gerstle, Mr. and Mrs. George Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mendell, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peixotto, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pickering, Miss Rhoda Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spreckels Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Folli, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Magee, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. Latham Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hobart, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Silas H. Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Shiele, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. de Young, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mrs. E. de Noon Lewis, Mrs. Gaston Ashe, Mrs. Blaine, Mrs. Walter Magee, Mrs. G. L. Lansing, Miss Florence de Long, Miss Dorothy Collier, Miss Anita Harvey, Miss Patricia Coe, Miss Helen Boss, Miss Ethel Dean, Miss Elsa Draper, Miss Helen de Young, Miss Constance de Young, Miss Jennie Blair, Miss Genevieve King, Miss Havemeyer, Miss Pearl Landers, Miss Ruth McNutt, Miss Mabel de Noon, Miss Minnie Hennessey, Miss Alice Hager, Miss Frances Stewart, Oscar Cooper, Dr. Harry Tevis, Harry Simpkins, Harry Stetson, Charles de Young, Clarence Folli, Courtney Ford, E. M. Greenway, Frank King, Jerome Landfield, Milton Latham, Frank Owen, James D. Phelan, Ed J. Tobin, Enrique Grau, Mr. Geary, Charles Adams, W. E. Dean, Theodore Vogt, Charles Felton, William O'Connor, Dr. H. J. Stewart, William Greer Harrison, Charles Dickman, Amadeo Joullin, Frank Goad, E. M. Hotelling, Harry Melvin, William H. Smith Jr., Thomas Barbour, Frank Alingworth, William Hopkins, Willard Barton Jr., Sidney Salisbury and Wilberforce Williams.

ADELPHIAN CLUB.

This is the season for clubs and club elections, and the Adelphean Club of Alameda is the latest to present an interesting ticket to be voted upon at the annual meeting and election of officers on Thursday, April 5.

The committee on nominations for the board of directors announces the following names: Mrs. T. R. McGurn, Mrs. D. D. Sutphen, Mrs. L. M. Sloss, Mrs. F. B. Weeks, Mrs. G. E. Gillogly, Mrs. Amos Macartney, Mrs. G. E. Plummer, Mrs. E. J. Dodge, Mrs. W. B. Stephens, Mrs. Louise Ward, Mrs. S. B. Connor.

PLAY WHIST.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Osgood entertained a score of friends last evening at the final meeting of a whist club, the members of which have enjoyed fortnightly meetings during the winter.

The club includes Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Roth, Judge and Mrs. F. B. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. C.

Ackerly, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Man-uel, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wight, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Meek.

ACROSS THE BAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Dutton of Goldfield, Nevada, arrive today and have taken apartments at the Palace Hotel.

HAS RETURNED.

Miss Marion Goodfellow has returned after a pleasant stay of two weeks at Carmel-by-the-Sea.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ruth Cheever Morse and Jenkin Bevens Johns. Miss Morse is a clever pianist, and a favorite in musical and social circles. She is the daughter of Mrs. F. Bradford Morse and a sister of Miss Mary Alverta Morse and Mrs. Henry A. Melvin.

The bride-elect will doubtless be the motif for several social gatherings, previous to her marriage, which is to take place in the autumn.

Mr. Johns is a well-known young business man, holding a position with A. J. Snyder & Co., of this city.

After a honeymoon trip, the young couple will make their home in Oakland.

CARD CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell entertained the Wednesday Night Whist Club this week at their home. The hours passed delightfully, the prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wedgewood.

The club includes Mr. and Mrs. E. Whitehead, Mrs. A. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wellby, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schrock, Will Hammer and Mr. and Mrs. Schrock.

DINNER GUESTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Calhoun entertained last evening at a delightful dinner given for a score of friends at their apartments in the Palace Hotel. The large oblong table was decorated with masses of pink and red Japanese peonies, the central piece radiating great sprays of pink and white fruit blossoms. The attractive scene was lighted with pink shaded candelabra.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun entertained President and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Judge and Mrs. John Garber, Professor and Mrs. Gayley, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Hunter Voorhies, Professor and Mrs. Bernard Moses, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Garret McCroney, Miss Florida Green and Thornwell Mullaly.

QUIET WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Ellice Gregory and Dr. Nicholas D. Richardson was quietly solemnized Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Henry Payson Gregory on Vallejo street, San Francisco.

Dr. David McClure officiated, none but half a dozen relatives attending the pretty ceremony.

Dr. Richardson is attached to the United States marine hospital service at Angel Island, and his recent illness has been a matter of great anxiety to his fiancée, who dispensed with an elaborate wedding in favor of the quiet ceremony last Tuesday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Richardson have a large circle of friends about the bay who are extending congratulations.

WHIST CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schrock entertained the Tuesday Night Whist Club this week at their home. The hours passed delightfully, the prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wedgewood.

The club includes Mr. and Mrs. E. Whitehead, Mrs. A. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wellby, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schrock, Will Hammer and Mr. and Mrs. Schrock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wellby will entertain the club at the next meeting.

VISITING HERE.

Mrs. F. M. Jones, prominent in musical circles in Sacramento is the guest this week of Mrs. J. H. K. Bell. A delightful luncheon was given yesterday by Mrs. Harry Schuler of Berkeley, in honor of Mrs. Jones.

BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. James Tyson will entertain the Monday Bridge Club next week at her home in Alameda. An informal luncheon will precede the afternoon at bridge.

GOING EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Requa will leave in a few days for the East, where they will spend several weeks. Mr. Requa is called away on business.

ENGAGEMENT NEWS.

From Paris comes the announcement of the engagement of Miss Edith Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Adams, and Everett Hinckley of Bar Harbor, Maine.

Miss Adams is a charming girl, popular with a large circle of friends in the college and society world. She entered with the class of '01 at the University of California, but did not remain to take her degree. She is a member of the Kappa Gamma sorority.

Miss Adams and Mr. Hinckley were childhood friends, but have been separated for several years, while Mr. Hinckley made his home on the Eastern coast. About a year ago, however, Miss Adams, accompanied by her mother, left here for an extended tour of the East and Europe, and the young friends, meeting in the East, carried the friendship into a romance, and the announcement of their engagement follows.

Mr. Hinckley is a prominent young business man of Bar Harbor, and the marriage will take place shortly in the East, where Miss Adams has many relatives and friends.

WILL ENTERTAIN.

Mrs. William Hamilton Morrison has sent out cards for an elaborate five hundred party to be given Wednesday afternoon, March 28, at her home on Eighth street. The complimented guest is to be Mrs. Whipple Spear Hall (nee Crellin), and the guests invited are almost all members of the younger set.

SKATING CLUB.

The Wednesday Evening Skating Club held a meeting last evening at the Piedmont rink, and the evening proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the winter series. The weather has hitherto been unfavorable for these weekly affairs, but the attendance has hardly been affected, showing the keen interest society is taking in the diversion.

Among those who have been enjoying these gatherings are Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dailam, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lovell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Connors, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Felton Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Bornemann, Mr. and Mrs. Lettie Oliver, Misses Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Egbert, Mrs. Charles E. Foughton, Miss Ruth Houghton, Mrs. W. S. Palmanteer, Miss Carolyn Palmanteer, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Whitehead, Miss Carol Mills, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dieckmann, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. H. Dunn, Mrs. Moylan Fox, Miss Jessie Fox, Miss Kittie Kutz, Miss Gertrude Russell, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, Miss Floriana Brown, Miss Katherine Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Allen, Mrs. J. R. Burnham, Miss Lucretia Burnham, Willard Barton, Dr. Percy Gaskill, Charles Bates and many others.

HOLD MEETING.

Mrs. Henry Kahn was hostess today at a meeting of the Council of Jewish Women at her home on Twelfth street.

Reports from the National Triennial Council were read by Miss Evelyn K. Aronson and Mrs. Louis Hertz of San Francisco.

A delightful social hour followed the business meeting.

PIEDMONT IN CLAWSON'S PLACE

As stated recently in THE TRIBUNE, the Clawson school baseball team, scheduled to meet that of the Garfield school next Saturday at Idora Park in the league contests of the grammar schools of Oakland, will not be on hand to fight for a place in the finals and a chance at the handsome trophy offered by the park management for the champions of the city.

The Piedmont team will be present in full force, however, to take Clawson's place, and the members of that aggregation promise to make it warm for whoever runs up against them, either next Saturday or at any time following.

When the schedule was made out, by some peculiar inadvertence, the Piedmont and Temescal schools were left out, and there was a mighty wall thereat. It was soon discovered, however, that the Clawson school, where the pupils are mostly small ones, would not be able to get up a team that could hope to cope successfully with their larger brethren, so it was decided to allow Piedmont and Temescal to fight it out to see who should take Clawson's place.

EASY VICTORY.
The game to decide this was played at Idora Park last Saturday afternoon, following the regularly scheduled games, and Piedmont vanquished her rivals by the lopsided score of 24 to 1. It is evident, therefore, that the Piedmont team will be no mean antagonist for any nine in the league.

Saturday's games are to be between Garfield and Piedmont, with Prescott and Grant lining up later. The former contest is slated for ten a. m., while the latter will take place at noon, or as near that time as the conclusion of the other will permit.

CHAMPIONSHIP PISTOL MATCHES TO BE HELD HERE

The annual matches of the United States Revolver Association for the pistol and revolver championships of America at twenty yards, and also the championship of the State of California, will be held on the ranges of the Oakland Revolver Club, 412 Fourteenth street, Oakland, on Saturday afternoon and evening, March 24. Range open at 2 p. m. The Oakland Revolver Club will also conduct a pistol and revolver tournament at the same time and place, open to all, unlimited re-entry, for which a very generous list of prizes has been provided.

MUNROE AFTER FIGHT WITH SHARKEY

NEW YORK, March 22.—Miner Jack Munroe has been heard from.

He is away up in Halifax, but is willing and anxious to come to New York if he can coax Tom Sharkey back into the ring. It is possible that Sharkey may decide to put on the gloves again for such an offer to even up that argument of five years ago.

In these days of middle in the heavy-weight world why should not Sharkey and Munroe come back? There have been many fights arranged that were not one-half so foolish and both are still kids when compared with one Fitzsimmons.

Johnny Mack has been authorized by Munroe to make overtures to Sharkey, and the Westerner has signified his willingness to meet the sailor at any old time, for any number of rounds, before the club offering the best inducement.

HOW THE OAKS WON FIRST GAME

ARTHUR KRUGER, WHO SCORED FOUR RUNS AND SLAMMED OUT THREE HITS IN FIRST GAME OF TRAINING SEASON.

The following is a portion of an account of the Oakland baseball team's first game played at Bakersfield last Sunday with the nine of that town, as printed in the Bakersfield Californian. It will be noticed that Randolph the Alameda twirler, allowed only four hits in the four and one-half innings he occupied the mound. The account follows:

"When Wild Bill Devereaux came to bat in the last half of the ninth inning of yesterday's baseball game between Bakersfield and Oakland he said he was going to break up the game and he did it. With two men out, the score tied 11 to 11, and Hackett on second, 'Wild Bill' connected with one of Turner's offerings for a two-bagger into left field, bringing Hackett across the plate with the winning run.

Thus ended the first game of the season for Van Haltren's side. Throughout the entire contest the Bakersfield team looked like a sure winner, and with less errors would have been on the heavy end of the score. Charlie Turner, who occupied the box for the local team, held the big league down in fine shape and if the team behind him had given him better support the story of the game would be entirely different. The men behind him made ten errors, enough to lose any game, but in spite of this fact the contest was close and exciting and held a large crowd of spectators throughout the entire game.

SLUGGEST.
"It was a slugfest contest with Turner pitted against Oscar Graham and Randolph, the latter twirler going into the box during the fifth inning. The Com-muters touched up Turner's hottest for fourteen safe wallopings, while Graham allowed nine and Randolph four, a total of thirteen for Nappy Baker's proteges. Kruger, Markley and Devereaux did the bulk of the batting for Oakland, while Turner was the heavy hitting kid of the other side of the score book. Hogan, Kane, Baker, Murphy and Van Haltren all are registered for two safe clouts. "Wild Bill" Devereaux, the 'kidding kid,' had lots of fun and kept the grandstand in an uproar throughout the game. 'Bill' had 'Blondie' Turner hypnotized and stole a couple of passes. When the old man was in 'feeling right' it will be worth the price of admission alone to see and hear what he has to do and say. After a week, when the kink is out of his arm and his muscles are right, 'Bill' will be as frisky as an Emeryville one-year-old."

The score shows that Arthur Kruger made four of the Oakland run and batted out three hits.

SWEDEN'S CHAMPION IS BEATEN AT PIEDMONT RINK

An unexpected race of considerable importance was brought off at the Piedmont Skating Rink last night, when the champion of Sweden and the champion of the Pacific Coast competed on the rollers in what for a time was one of the most exciting events yet brought off there.

The Swedish champion, whose other appellation is Ernest Westellus, did not make his presence known to Manager Eppinger until a few hours before the race was brought off, and consequently there was little time to make the contest known as the visitor was planning to leave here at once and wished to get on a match before he departed.

A race for one mile was therefore soon arranged between him and Arthur Waldstein for a purse of $100.

When it began it was evident that Westellus was no mean performer. The contest was nip and tuck for the greater part of the distance, first one pedaler, then the other, leading at the cloud of the various laps as they were wound off.

About three laps from the finish, however, the pace began to tell upon Westellus, who afterward stated that he had done absolutely no racing for five or six years and had scarcely been on a skate in much of that time, and Waldstein drew away. From then on to the finish Waldstein continued to gain and finally won the race as he pleased, the Swede being unable to keep up the gait he had set. The time, which was rather slow, was 3:40.

Joseph Waldstein, father of Arthur, and who disputes Harley Davidson's claim to the world's championship, is reported to be about to come to California from Oregon, where he has been appearing. If he does so, it is said that Manager Eppinger may arrange a race between the two for Piedmont rink. He offered a large purse not long ago, but Waldstein did not accept.

$30,000 MAY BE GIVEN FOR RADTKE
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 22.—Bud May, who owned the mighty Highball, has created considerable stir by offering Jack Keene $27,500 for his contract on Radtke. "I think Radtke is the best rider in the world today, without a single exception," said May. "He is a phenomenon. I have watched the clever Chicagoan from the barrier to the wire, and I cannot find a fault with his riding. My offer of $27,500 is a bare ride and I have the money to pay over to Keene if he will accept. "I don't know whether I will be able to go $30,000, the price Keene now asks, but I certainly want the boy."

It is understood May is representing Paul Raine, for whom he purchased Yankee Consul last spring at Memphis. There is hardly a doubt but that the coming week will find J. W. Schorr, the Memphis brewer, again the possessor of a string of thoroughbreds.

Schorr was the first to go over the $20,000 mark in an endeavor to secure the services of Radtke. In speaking of the latter Schorr said: "With a boy like Radtke to pilot the horses for me I would be willing to put at least $100,000 into a string and take them East." That the return of such a thorough gentleman and true sportsman to the field of the "sport of kings" would be welcome goes without saying.

FRESHMEN ARE BARRED FROM ATHLETICS
AMHERST, Mass., March 22.—The faculty of Amherst College announced a new rule yesterday by which no member of the freshman class will be allowed to represent the institution on the college team in any branch of athletics.

BALL DIAMOND LAID OUT IN THREE STATES

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, March 22.—The Klondike Baseball Club of this city has laid out its new diamond at State Line Corner, and in one respect at least it is the most remarkable in the world. It is situated right at the junction of the State lines of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

A foul tip that gets away from the catcher has to be chased into Pennsylvania. A home run hit to left field is recovered in West Virginia. Ordinary singles go into Ohio.

Hereafter the rooter who becomes enthusiastic will call for "West Virginia" when the home team is at the bat and shout "Pennsylvania for yours" at the opposing team batter.

CALLAGHAN IN LEAD FROM START

It was Callaghan all the way yesterday. He captured the Phaeton Handicap at Emeryville from start to finish. There were six starters for this $1000 event, which was at one and one-sixteenth miles. Callaghan was always the favorite in the betting, while Beknight was a mild second choice. Williams took Callaghan to the front soon after the barrier started up and was never headed. Corn Blossom saved ground on the rail and just beat out Beknight.

Muskoday has doubtless trained off or his form at Ascot has been very much exaggerated. The last race of the day, which was at five and a half furlongs, brought together a clever bunch of sprinters. Tom McGrath was backed into favoritism over Tooloway, while Lacene was not given much consideration, despite his previous win. Tom McGrath led to the stretch where Sir Edward took command. In a fast finish it looked as if Sir Edward had won, but the judges decided in favor of Tooloway.

The Lieutenant was revived yesterday, and captured the mile race, outgunning Shady Lad and Buchanan. The latter horse was favorite, but he got off rather badly, which doubtless cost him the race. Evelyn Griffin won the first race in a gallop. She was a well supported favorite.

Pickaway ruled favorite in the second race, at seven furlongs, but Modicum bent him in easy style.

Blagg, an odds-on favorite, beat the field opposed to him in the two-year-old race in very easy style.

SPENCER WILL WEAR SEAL UNIFORM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Cal Ewing and Jack Gleason will take a trip to Bakersfield tomorrow to see their band of ball tossers play exhibition games with the Oakland team on Saturday and Sunday.

Gleason will have the pleasure of gazing on his team in action for the first time, while Ewing will have a chance to compare his new team with the players from the city which he helped to make famous in the baseball world.

Henry Spencer was signed by the San Francisco management yesterday and will report at once to Parker Wilson at Viasa. Spencer is a fast man and should add strength to the team. If he gives himself a chance—something he failed to do last season—Spencer will be able to hold his own with any outfielder in the league.

DONLIN MAKES APOLOGY TO M'GRAW

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 22.—The war is over between the Giant officials and Mike Donlin, who was suspended recently. Donlin has moved his trunk to the Giant headquarters, although he declared yesterday he would leave on the first train. In apologizing to Manager McGraw, Donlin declared that he would listen more attentively to the temperance lecturers in the future. Donlin said he had come to the conclusion that the New York manager and club officials were the best friends he ever had.

Starving to Death.
Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters of St. Clair street, Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep, and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters, with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed. Best health tonic on earth, 50 cents. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros., druggists, Seventh and Broadway streets, and Twelfth and Washington streets."

SECURES FIGHT BY $20,000 OFFER

Herrera and Nelson Go Signed for Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—Manager McCarey of the Pacific Athletic Club has closed negotiations with Battling Nelson and Aurelio Herrera for a twenty-round battle here during Fiesta week, in May. Negotiations had been pending for several weeks, but Nelson demanded a $20,000 purse, and only last night, after Nelson sent his ultimatum to McCarey, did the manager accede, and, after consulting with Herrera, he notified Nelson that the match had been closed.

By the terms of the match McCarey deposits a large forfeit to back up a guarantee, and Nelson and Herrera are each to put up $2000 forfeit to guarantee weight and appearance. They will weigh in at 8 o'clock at 133 pounds.

Herrera attached his signature to articles of agreement tonight, and Nelson wired that he would sign another set in New York tomorrow and post his forfeit.

Fiesta week is May 7 to 12, when the Shriners of the United States will be here.

Britt and "Kid" Herman have the early-week date, and the Nelson-Herrera battle will be staged about May 12.

BALL GOSSIP FROM THE SOUTH

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—On account of the rains last week the Angels who reported for spring training did not make much headway, but with a little sunshine Captain Dillon will rapidly work the team into shape and be ready for the opening in April.

The schedule has not yet been made public, but Manager Morley states that the Angels will open at home as usual with a five weeks' series, Fresno and one of the northern teams will then come down for a week at Chutes Park.

On the northern trip the team will visit all the other league cities, being away for seven weeks. But two trips to the far northwest will be made this season, so on the first trip the Angels will spend four weeks in Seattle and Portland. On the second they will be but two weeks in the north.

Brashear has sent word from the East that he will be here, ready for practice, this week. The remainder of the players are also expected to report this week.

The first games will be played with local college teams. The Angels will take on any of the colleges desiring games.

Among the youngsters being tried out are Bergman, a Chicago city league pitcher, and Crandall, the Southern California twirler who has been doing good work with semi-professional teams. Bergman has had a number of offers to sign in the East, but would prefer pitching for the Angels if he can make the team. Many who have seen Crandall work believe he will be able to win a place on the team.

Ellis is almost sure to be retained and Broadbent may be kept for a utility infielder.

KID HULEN IS MISSING A MONTH

Kid Hulen's friends are greatly worried over his whereabouts. He has been missing from his home in Ashland, Or., since the 20th of last month. He was seen in Seattle and at that time was about to leave for Everett.

The Seattle Elks have been called upon to do what they can to locate the well known ballplayer. Last year Hulen managed the Everett club, which was a first base, which was a new position, and his work was favorably commented upon. Previous to this he had filled second base and short.

Hulen played several seasons with different clubs in California, and at one time was in the National League.

WEIGHTS FOR TWO RICH HANDICAPS

NEW YORK, March 22.—The weights of the Carter and Excelsior handicaps, to be run at Aqueduct, April 16 and Jamaica, April 28, respectively, are published today. The Carter, at seven furlongs, has a guaranteed value of $10,000 this year. For this event, Syon has received top weight, 134 pounds. Hermis gets in at 130 pounds, the weight allotted to Mr. Keene's Deihl, while Roseben has received 123 pounds. Hamburg Belle comes next with 125 pounds, Calngorm having 121, while 120 has been assigned to both Lord of the Vale and Ram's Horn, one of the best handicap horses at New Orleans.

AURELIO HERRERA, WHO IS TO SHARE IN $20,000 PURSE WITH NELSON.

FRESNO BUNCH BEGINS ITS WORK

FRESNO, March 22.—The training season of the Fresno Baseball Club has begun. The grounds are still too wet for infield work, but the men put in several hours of light throwing and finished with a four mile run.

The players now here who have put their names to contracts for the season are: Doyle, Hogan, Schmidt, Fitzgerald, Casper, Egan, McLaughlin, Deinas, Dashwood, Levy, Steltz, Arralene and Phelan. O'Brien, who pitched a few games at the close of last season, has left New York and will be here by the end of the week. Lemke, the Denver southpaw, is expected to arrive from Denver this week.

VAN HALTREN ON TEAM'S WORK.

President Ed Walter of the Oakland Baseball Club has received another letter from Manager George Van Haltren, now with the team at Bakersfield, in which the veteran player and captain speaks glowingly of the abilities of some of the new men and the prospects of the team for the coming season.

Van Haltren declares that he believes the locals will be as strong as any club in the league when the season opens, and adds:

WORK HARDER.

"Our first week's work is about ended and from now on we shall work even harder. The rainy weather, of course, has interfered with us somewhat, but we are hopeful that this will not continue long. It is not the habit of the weather to be so unfavorable down here, and while some of the people have jokingly accused us of having brought the showers with us, we certainly would have dropped them off at some way station if we had thought they were 'hanging to our coats,' as Bill Devereaux says.

"We have been handicapped by having more left-handed pitchers than right-handed ones, although they are good ones, at that. When Cox arrived, I found, to my surprise, that he was left-handed, also. I have not been able to get good line on him yet, but will very soon.

HACKETT HEAVY.

"Rely has just wired that he will reach here Tuesday night. Tom Hackett's weight still clings to him, but he is working nicely to get rid of it. J. J. Hackett is rounding to in fine shape and Bliss looks strong.

"I feel positive that Randolph will make good. In my opinion he is a daisy. Markley is a finished fielder and a good hitter. We have landed a good man in him.

"Next Saturday and Sunday we are to play the San Francisco aggregation here, and on the following Saturday and Sunday, or March 31 and April 1, we hook up with Mike Fisher's boys from Fresno. Probably we will change the batteries, so as not to make it too much like a regular contest."

ENOUGH TWIRLERS.

The local club managers are so pleased with their situation in the twirling department that they are making no further effort to secure pitchers. It will be remembered that it was announced several weeks ago that the club was dickering with three club artists, whose names could not then be made known. Two of these have now been signed in the persons of Cox and Cates. The third is a man who did not reply to the offer sent him by the local club, and it is therefore supposed that he has retired from baseball, as he was not connected then with any team, and had talked some of quitting the game.

PLEASED AT PROSPECT.

President Walter is jubilant over the reports from Randolph, the Alameda High school twirler, whom Van Haltren thinks so highly of, and who held the Bakersfield team down to one run in the four innings he occupied the box last Sunday. "Randolph is a husky, strong boy," said Walter today. "He has an arm like a whip, as far as strength is concerned, is big and well developed—just the sort of a fellow, in fact, for a ball player. I look for him to make a fine showing when we get down to business."

Discussing the statement of a Portland paper, as printed in THE TRIBUNE, that Cates was too vigorous to suit the northerners, and made too much trouble, which was the cause of his retirement, Mr. Walter said:

"That won't worry us any. We need a few fighters on our team, and if Cates is inclined to be scrappy in the game, that is just about what is wanted. Cates looks good to me."

Another English bantam boxer is en route to America—like Bradley of Liverpool. He is after a date with Jimmy Walsh of Massachusetts.

With other medicines the afflicted have only their makers' word for their efficacy. With Dr. Pierce's medicines they have the disinterested endorsement of scores of eminent medical practitioners and medical writers of wide renown. These numerous unqualified endorsements, from men whose writings are regarded as authorities in each of the several schools of medicine, are the more valuable because they were written without any knowledge on the part of the several writers that they were extolling the curative virtues of ingredients that go to make up Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines. Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines, therefore STAND ALONE in respect to being the only ones professionally endorsed as remedies, or cures, for the several diseases for which they are recommended. A glance at the published ingredients will show that no narcotics or other harmful agents are employed; that no alcohol enters into their composition; that they are made of the roots of indigenous, or native, medicinal plants; that, instead of alcohol, chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength is used, both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles residing in the several roots employed.

It is an absolutely new medicine.

RIOT ON CAMPUS WHEN SENIOR IS HAZED

Oakland Boy Stretched on Table in College Building While Tormen- tors Trim His Beard.

The yellow students. One side of his face resembled a scarred side of brick, the other a smooth, glowing one with delicate and sprouted through the luxurious stuff that furrowed on his face. The whiskers on one side were left untouched and the contrast between the product and the distorted, mangled "mutton chops" on the other side was most striking. He seemed to be waiting for a word of imperative to consult a barber. If on half of his whiskers were removed, and so the work was done on that system.

LIVES IN OAKLAND.

The senior who heard so sorely of fended his college mates resides at 11 Seventeenth street, Oakland. He was remonstrated with by the men in the college of mechanics recently for permitting the so-called "sophomore" to come on his campus and end them. "Lb be, I've a right to do what I like with my face." This doctrine found some

PROSPECTS FOR

CHERRIES

EXPERIMENTS, AND OPINION EXPRESSED BY VARIOUS GROWERS.

ELMHURST, March 22.—WHY Park the contractor, who has about 400 cherry trees near his home at the foothills, east of Grand avenue, thinks the prospect for a cherry crop is poor. In the center of the bloom is the little embryo cherry. When the petals are picked off, the cherry they should still cling to. It is too late, says Mr. Parker, for those he has examined on his own trees to drop off easily. On this he bases his expectation of a poor crop for harvest at least. He lays the rottenness of the attachment between bud and branch counted rain and cold weather.

I. H. Miller of San Leandro and others in this vicinity think there is a chance for a SUFFICIENT CROP.

OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICIT

NEW YORK, March 22.—B. F. Yoakum, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island and Frisco systems, operated on for appendicitis on Tuesday evening. It was said at the hotel last night that Mr. Yoakum had rallied bravely from the shock of the operation and that there was every reason to hope his recovery would be rapid.

Mr. Yoakum returned to New York on Sunday from a trip of several weeks to Mexico. He was taken ill at the Hotel Gotham soon after his arrival. He was suffering from appendicitis. A consultation was held Tuesday evening at which it was decided to perform an operation immediately.

Mr. Yoakum's activity in the railroad field has been considerably increased recently by his election as chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island system as well as the Frisco system.
